

Positions Open – 2015

Race Track Chaplaincy of America (RTCA)

Chaplain, if you are looking for an adventurous ministry opportunity, where the pay is small, but the rewards are great, then the Horse Racing ministry is for you. We have upcoming opportunities in Idaho, Wyoming, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Contact Chaplain (COL) Craig Wiley, USA (Ret.), Executive Director, RTCA at 859-410-7822 or by email

HealthCare Chaplaincy Network Position Description Online Per Diem Chaplain

Summary of Position

The Chaplain is responsible for the delivery of chaplaincy care to persons who contact HCCN via the Chat with a Chaplain function of the Chaplaincy Care for Veterans web site. S/he will have responsibility to ensure that religious and spiritual needs are addressed via e-mail, telephone, and/or video call. The successful candidate will work remotely from anywhere in the country using her/his own computer, smart phone, etc. The Chaplain will report to the Senior Director of Chaplaincy Services and Clinical Education.

Principal Duties and Responsibilities

1. Participate in delivering and arranging for appropriate chaplaincy care via e-mail, telephone, and/or video call.
 - Actively participate in the delivery of chaplaincy care.
 - Respond to requests for chaplaincy care in a timely manner.
2. Participate in maintenance of proper administrative procedures for the department in accordance with institutional policy.
 - Keep records of chaplaincy activity to communicate with other Tele-Chaplains and report to HealthCare Chaplaincy Network.
 - Participate in HCCN's plan for continuous quality improvement.

Qualifications

- Current or former military chaplains preferred.
- Must be certified or eligible for certification with the Association of Professional Chaplains, the National Association of Veterans Affairs Chaplains, the National Association of Catholic Chaplains, the National Association of Jewish Chaplains, or the College of Pastoral Supervision and Psychotherapy. *
- Possesses excellent verbal and written communication skills, specifically electronic communication etiquette.
- Computer literacy and a skill level in basic web applications such as Google, Skype, etc.
- Competency in Outcome Oriented Chaplaincy.

Compensation

- Paid a standby rate for being on-call and an hourly rate for actual time worked

For More Information

- For more information or to submit a resume please email Ed Haran at EHaran@healthcarechaplaincy.org.

* This certification requires a college degree, a master's level theological degree or equivalent, clinical training in chaplaincy, ordination or commissioning for ministry by a recognized religious group, a current endorsement for chaplaincy by a recognized religious group, and appearance before a national certifying commission for assessment of competency.

South Fork, CO

An interdenominational church located in South Fork, CO, is seeking a new pastor. They have had a retired Army chaplain serve the congregation in the past and feel that a retired chaplain would be well-suited to fill the pastoral vacancy in this small, tourist town church. Interested chaplains may contact Judythe Hixson for details

Mineral, VA

SENIOR PASTOR. Mineral Baptist Church in Mineral, VA is seeking a man called of God to serve as Senior Pastor following the retirement of Dr. Michael Durham in July 2015. Candidates should have a minimum of a Master's Degree from a Seminary (Southern Baptist preferred, but not required) committed to the authority and truth of Scripture under the Lordship of Jesus Christ. Candidates should have at least six years of experience in leading a congregation in a variety of evangelism, worship, fellowship, discipleship, and service ministries. Mineral Baptist Church is affiliated with the BGAV, SBC, and CBF and is in general agreement with the Baptist Faith and Message of 1963. Interested candidates should provide their resumes by email to the Search Committee or by post to Pastor Search Committee, Mineral Baptist Church, PO Box 447, Mineral, VA 23117 by April 15, 2015. Additional information about the church can be found at www.mineralbaptistchurch.org.