

NEWS RELEASEContact: Anne Zambrano 813-223-7474

Trenam Law Announces Four New Shareholders

TAMPA, FL (September 16, 2015) – Trenam Law is pleased to announce that four attorneys have been elected shareholders of the firm.

Adam Butkus joined Trenam in 2008 and practices in the Commercial Litigation Group. As a litigator, Adam represents various types of businesses, financial services organizations, and individuals in state and federal court at the trial and appellate levels.

Diana Hayes joined Trenam in 2008 and practices in the Business Transactions Group. Diana's practice focuses primarily on corporate and business matters, private placements and securities law advice, intellectual property and technology, mergers and acquisitions, entity selection and formation, and commercial contracts.

Julia Lee joined Trenam in 2007 and practices in the Business Transactions Group. Her practice includes general business matters, business formation and entity selection, mergers and acquisitions, and capital raising.

Rhys Leonard joined the firm in 2008 and practices in the Bankruptcy, Creditors' Rights & Insolvency Group. In addition to his bankruptcy experience, Rhys also focuses on government contracting and appellate matters.

Founded in 1970, Trenam Law ranks among the largest law firms in Florida, with offices in Tampa and St. Petersburg. Trenam works regionally with clients in the following practice areas: bankruptcy, creditors' rights & insolvency, business transactions, commercial litigation, construction law and government contracting, employment law, employee benefits, health care, intellectual property, private client services and real estate transactions and lending. The firm is committed to the service of its clients, the community and the improvement of the legal profession. For more information, visit Trenam Law online at www.trenam.com.

###