

Matthew Doniger, Trinity Graphic, Joins University of Tampa Board of Counselors

Matthew Doniger recently joined The University of Tampa Board of Counselors. Established in 1962, the Board of Counselors' mission is to aid The University of Tampa in its student retention program and to assist in creating public recognition of, understanding of and confidence in The University of Tampa.

With nearly 85 volunteer members, the Counselors organize social events to raise awareness and funds for UT and maintain programs designed to prepare students for life after college. Through their membership commitment, Board of Counselors members find rewarding opportunities to network with peers who share their belief in the value of higher education.

Matthew is the Director of the Wide Format Division at Trinity Graphic. He has been in the graphics trade for over 28 years. He started his career while in college and found signage a compelling area in which to utilize his marketing and commercial art backgrounds.
