FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Thomas Howell Ferguson P.A. Welcomes Phil Focaracci and John Spence

Tallahassee, FL – September 16, 2015—Thomas Howell Ferguson P.A., a professional accounting, assurance, and tax services firm headquartered in Tallahassee, welcomes John Spence and Phil Focaracci to the Tax Services Department.

In August 2009, John began his career at THF as a runner while earning his bachelor's degrees in accounting and business from Flagler College. At the beginning of 2014, John was invited to join the Tax Department as a part-time staff team member, while he completed his schooling, and has since transitioned into a full-time staff team member as of September 2015. John's responsibilities include preparation of C-corporation, S-corporation, partnerships, payroll, and individual tax returns.

Phil also began his time at THF as a runner in October 2014 while he was attending Florida State University. While earning his bachelor's degrees in both accounting and finance, Phil was invited to pursue his professional career with the firm and has now transitioned into a full-time staff team member as of September 2015. Prior to working at THF, Phil volunteered for the United Way Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Program where he provided tax preparation assistance for low-income families. Phil's responsibilities include preparation of C-corporation, S-corporation, partnerships, payroll, and individual tax returns.

Both Phil and John are members of the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants and are currently studying for their CPA exam.

The THF Tax Services Department is excited about Phil and John joining the team and know that they will be a valuable resource to the firm and its clients.

Thomas Howell Ferguson welcomes Phil and John to the Tax Services Department.
