(Mercer Island, WA) – Youth Theatre Northwest celebrates the Halloween season by bringing theatre magic to the enchanted trails of Mercer Island’s Rotary Park. The Witch in Which Wood? performs October 17 – 25, 2015. In contrast to a traditional haunted house, this Halloween activity is a non-scary, 30 minute guided adventure and tour through beautiful wooded trails. Our annual Halloween activity is specifically created for the most imaginative tots, preschoolers and early elementary.

Description:

Join us for a 30 minute tour where the audience is not there to simply listen, but are expected to become a part of the story itself. Eglantine the witch has decided that being a witch is just too scary. She has traded in her pointy hat for yoga pants and turned her cat into a girl. These changes have had a strange effect on Which Wood and the creatures who live there, and now Halloween has disappeared from the calendar! Sharp-eyed audience members led by their creative drama tour-guide will explore the park and the story, moving from one plot twist to the next as they meet the citizens of Which Wood. Can they help Eglantine and bring back Halloween? One thing is certain, an unforgettable adventure awaits.

Age appropriate: best for ages 3-8.

The Witch in Which Wood is an outdoor, rain or shine event. All guests are encouraged to dress appropriately and wear suitable shoes.
