

Winter After School Art Club for the creative student

Ellen Hochberg Studios offers tuition based after school art classes. These classes meet once a week, immediately after school, at West Mercer and are available to students in first through fifth grade. These clubs allow those students with a special interest in the visual arts to pursue this interest further.

Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis. And most clubs do fill. To ensure your child's registration, send the Registration Form, with payment, to the address below.
