

What some of our aphasiatoolbox clients are doing:

SR is now on the professional staff of aphasiatoolbox serving as editor of the newsletter and team leader for the Online Practice Coach Program.

CH has served on the OH disability committee and founded the now famous Aphasia Recovery Connection.

LC now communicates conversationally in sentences and narrative, uses texting and emails, and serves as junior editor of the aphasiatoolbox newsletter.

JK now works as office manager for the aphasiatoolbox home office in Pittsburgh, PA.

MS has resumed her entrepreneurial and business efforts.

NM serves as the billing manager for aphasiatoolbox at the home office.

RW has begun her college career.

PB manages his corporation and his website publishing materials and making presentations.

DM now speaks in full sentences and has begun two businesses creating paintings and repairing clocks.

JR has served her city and community leading recovery efforts from a disaster.

TP now communicates with his wife successfully in sentences and converses socially.

BT has begun to participate in his team meetings and converse with others.

SB has begun to use the iPhone and iPad and to fully reengage in social and family events.

GV is engaged full time in his business.

