Re: The Holiday Party at "Josie"

My dear Chickie, Karen, Debbie and Mitch:

Thanks, once again, for a truly lovely and thoroughly enjoyable time last Thursday evening at Josie. But, it was far more than just a party. By hosting these annual galas, you afford many of us who do not see each other that often the opportunity to renew friendships, to share stories and to catch up.

As an example, I saw John Yzurdiaga and had the chance to share some memories of his dear friend and mine, a long since deceased criminal attorney by the name of Jim Cooney. Jim had been practicing a very long time when I started in late 1975. Jim was one of my mentors and treated me extremely well. He was a classy guy and a great lawyer with a terrific sense of Irish humor. John is one of two lawyers who organized an annual celebration of Jim's life for many years following his death. John told me that I had made his day with what I shared about Jim last Thursday evening.

So, you see, what you provide so graciously and generously for all of us is much more than great food and drink. You provide us with the ability to maintain important relationships at a time when each of us is so busy with her/his own life that it is difficult to find time to gather and to socialize.

Kudos to all of you for being who you are and for what you do for all of us. Life would not be the same without each and every one of you!!
