Domaine des Baumard

“Carte Turquoise” Crémant de Loire (Loire Valley, France)

This is the time of year for celebrations and festive gatherings, and the air is filled with the glorious sound of popping corks as we enjoy the crisp, refreshing taste of lively bubbles. Yes, I am talking about Champagne, the wonderful wines from the tiny region in France, as well as sparkling wines made throughout the world. One sparkling wine that I love to pour for my friends and family is the Carte Turquoise Crémant de Loire. This beautiful wine is from Anjou in the Loire Valley, and was first made in 1957, although the land has been owned by the Baumard family since 1634! They use sustainable farming to carefully nurture the land and grow healthy, flavorful grapes, which for this wine are 60% Chenin Blanc and 40% Cabernet Franc. The wine is then aged on the lees for a minimum of 18 months to develop rich, complex flavors. It shows beautiful, ripe fruits balanced by lively acidity, leaving a fun yet elegant impression. Never too sweet or too dry, I can’t think of a better wine to serve at your next gathering. Happy Holidays! Sante! #21636

2010 Louis Jadot Santenay “Clos de Malte” Blanc
(Burgundy, France)
I love everything about the holidays. Decorations (I own 5 Christmas trees), the music (the earlier the better), and most especially, the start of holiday eating and drinking. This time of year, I love to drink White Burgundy. Made from Chardonnay grown in the revered soils of France’s Cotes-du-Beaune region, these stunning wines have a storied history, famous pedigrees, and often a sky-high price. While everything about the 2010 Jadot Santenay “Clos du Malte” should demand a high price, it doesn’t. The village of Santenay sits just beyond the Chassagne-Montrachet region, whose wines fetch upwards of several hundred dollars per bottle. Clos du Malte is a walled, single vineyard of only 17 acres of vines, and only 2.5 acres are Chardonnay. The result of this small production is flat out decadent. Yellow fruit in several forms (tropical pineapple to lemon curd) melts into honeycomb, fresh butter, dried hay and a warm spiciness that comes from both fermentation and aging in oak. Completely satisfying in a way that even smelling the empty glass makes you smile. And while this would be a natural match for the aforementioned festive dishes like butter poached lobster, it is heaven on earth with a simple roast chicken. #104350

PAIRS WELL WITH
Willoughby

One of my fondest memories of a food “awakening” experience was when a much younger me was given a sample bottle of a much lauded white Burgundy to take home. A humbling experience for someone who thought white wine was flat and dull at best. Mind blown! Willoughby, for me, shares the very same essence of that wine, but with a singular focus on the more animalistic earthy notes. Willoughby is a washed rind cow’s milk cheese from Jasper Hill Farm in Vermont. Unctuous and fragrant with aromas of peat, roast beef, and onions, and with strong, complex flavors that are herbal and of ripe stone fruit. A perfect holiday cheese to enjoy with Burgundy!

2012 Witness Tree Estate Pinot Noir

(Willamette Valley, Oregon)

Pinot Noir is one of the smallest and finest grapes to grow, and can also be one of the most rewarding and versatile wines to drink. 2012 was a remarkable vintage for Willamette Valley, as attested by Steven Westby, Witness Tree winemaker for 18 years (also a St. Olaf graduate and a previous wine buyer at Surdyk’s). “Low yield, tiny berries – that’s exciting from a quality point of view.” Made from 100% estate grown Pinot Noir, this precious wine is dark garnet in color and displays a perfumed bouquet revealing floral notes, and ripe red and black berry fruits laced with exotic spices. The palate is silky and satiny, not lithe or weak, while still boasting plenty of terrior. Medium-bodied with juicy flavors of black raspberries, boysenberries, red plums, black cherries, dried herbs, and cedar notes. As good as it drinks now, this wine could easily be cellared for another 3-7 years. Buy as many as you can and let a few age, as this hasn't even reached peak. Delicious on its own, or nicely with Witness Tree Pinot Noir.

Pairs Well With

Oma

Oma, from the Von Trapp Farmstead in Vermont, pairs nicely with Witness Tree Pinot Noir. This smooth, buttery, well-balanced washed rind cheese takes on the herbal notes and matches them perfectly. The cheese provides a slight earthy and pungent flavor to accompany the herbal wine. And the buttery texture allows everything else to roll off the palate.

STAFF SELECTIONS

I took a little break from some of the German Rieslings recently, not for any particular reason, just moved on to some other things. But this bottling has me back in the fold! Terry Theise Selections is a booming importer, led of course by Terry Theise himself, who seems to be at the top of his game. This bottling is a collaboration between him and the dynamic owners of the legendary Von Winning and Dr. Deinhard estates. Both Theise and Von Winning are doing some of their best work recently, and this collaboration, while flawless, also takes a cue from its starry label art. Bright, light, and crisp, this is a striking wine that will be sure to brighten up the latter portion of your day. Of course, with Riesling, we must always talk about sweetness, and in this the objective was to make a wine that, in Terry’s words, was sugar-neutral. By this he means that it should have enough sweetness to make the fruit sing, but not enough to leave a trace on the finish. Well, they succeeded spectacularly! The fruit sings, and the finish is completely dry. Low in alcohol (10.5%) and full of personality and sparkle, this Riesling is striking, delicious, and persistent. I plan to buy lots of this over the next few months, and will include it as a part of all of my holiday entertaining. It is perfect in so many ways, and is compelling for its price, packaging, and personality….

Really classy stuff! #109499

Max di Lenardo has been making these fantastic Italian wines from his estate in Grave del Friuli since 1998, but his family has owned this estate since the early 1800’s. This is a family run operation, placing an emphasis on combining modern winemaking techniques with centuries of experience in the vineyards. We continue to think that they are beautiful and unique wines.

2014 Essay Chenin Blanc-Viognier
(South Africa)

South Africa may not be the first place people think of when looking for interesting, affordable, and versatile wine to serve for the holidays, but this one fits the bill and then some. Essay is a play on the initials “S.A.,” which are commonly used as shorthand for South Africa. While the name may be shorthand, the wine is made with great care. Unirrigated, old bush vine Chenin Blanc forms the base for this vibrant, flavorful, dry white wine, with the addition of 13% Viognier for extra floral and spice notes. The wine exhibits lively acidity. This perfect combination of fruit, spice, and acidity makes this an incredibly versatile wine, perfect on its own (kick your feet up), or to bring along to a party to serve with a variety of appetizers or classic holiday poultry dishes. #109006

Presenting Surdyk’s

Winter Wine Classes

Our popular wine classes sell out fast. Purchase yours today, and present that lucky someone on your list with a glimpse of their gift by simply cutting out the description on this page. Not sure which class to choose? Buy a gift card and let them decide.

Bubbly and Cheese Pairing:
Modest to Majestic
Monday, January 4
Instructors: Noelle Starr & Nora Last
Simple pleasures are sometimes the best. Cheese and sparkling wine can be counted among them. Both come from all over the globe and both can range from absolute bargain to major splurge. Join Noelle and Nora on a global tour of sparkling wines and cheese pairings from humble Spanish Cava and Malvarosa to noble Champagne and Regal de Bourgogne. Glass clinking strongly encouraged. $55 per person.

The World of Cheese
Tuesday, January 5  Instructor: Nora Last
Learn how to think like a cheesemonger! This class will introduce the types, textures, and flavors that make up the most amazing cheeses in the world. We’ll teach you the basics: which rinds are edible, the intricacies of different milk types, and how best to store cheeses at home. What’s the difference between a gorgonzola & a blue? We’ll answer these questions while tasting a plate of favorite cheeses at peak perfection (with a glass of wine, of course). $40 per person.

Undiscovered Gems From Italy
Monday, January 11  Instructor: Drew Fuller
Wines from Italy involve so much more than Chianti and Pinot Grigio. We will explore ancient varietals as we span the breadth of Italy, from the mountainous north to the steep volcanic vineyards of the south and even the Mediterranean islands of Sardinia and Sicily. Come and enjoy discovering these hidden gems from Italy. $50 per person.

Introduction to Wine
Tuesday, January 12  Instructor: Bill McCleary
The original Surdyk’s Wine Class! Our Introduction class is an unintimidating environment perfect for novice wine lovers who would like to polish their palates and gain some useful knowledge. We’ll show you where to begin by tasting the major wine varietals, share some useful tips on how to properly taste and serve wine, and supply you with enough basic know-how to begin exploring the vast and rewarding world of wine on your own. $40 per person.

Romancing the Rhone Valley
Monday, January 18  Instructor: Derek Brammer
Considered one of the three best regions in France, the Rhone Valley is a very large, warm region known for its variety of terroir-based red wines produced mainly from Grenache, Syrah, and Mourvedre. The Rhone Valley is divided into the Northern and Southern sub-regions, each with its own climate, geography, and grape varieties. This informative class will sample white and red wines from throughout different regions, including Syrah, Grenache-based blends, Viognier, and a Chateauneuf-du-Pape. $50 per person.

The Unpronouncables
Tuesday, January 19  Instructor: Roger Clark
Perhaps while perusing wine labels, you have passed by wines made with grapes with names you couldn’t say, or were curious to try but didn’t want to commit to a whole bottle. In this tasting, you’ll be able to do just that in a fun and unintimidating environment. Roger will be leading the way through these great wines with names like Aglianico through Zweigelt; learn what a great reward it can be to try something a little different! $40 per person.

RESERVATIONS REQUIRED. All classes will be held at GINGER HOP. *All classes are non-refundable. We make no exceptions to this policy; much like purchasing a ticket to a cultural or sporting event. We encourage you to send someone in your place if you are unable to attend a class. Those classes with insufficient enrollment will be canceled prior to their starting date. Therefore, early enrollment is desirable. If Surdyk’s cancels a class, registered attendees will be notified by phone and they can then elect to take another class (of the same value) from the current schedule or be fully refunded. We reserve the right to cancel or modify classes and menus. If we cancel a class due to inclement weather, we will notify you as soon as that decision is made and fully refund your registration; but if we hold a class, there will be no refunds due to the weather.

All classes held at:  Ginger Hop • 201 E Hennepin Avenue • Minneapolis, MN

We will be accepting reservations online at www.surdyks.com, by phone at 612-379-3232 or in the store.

La Tur Robiola
Reg. $24.99/lb  sale $19.99/lb
La Tur is made in Piedmont with cow, sheep, and goat's milk. The flavor is nicely balanced between the three milks and the texture is creamy and rich.

Alpage Gruyere
Reg. $21.99/lb  sale $17.99/lb
Produced up in the mountains during the alpage season, typically from mid-May through mid-October, when local herds climb mountain pastures in search of uncultivated alpine forage. This summer milk becomes a distillation of the herbaceous pastures, with notes of grass, sweet fruit, and chocolate.

St. Agur
Reg. $20.99/lb  sale $15.99/lb
This double cream blue from the Auvergne region is a sweeter and creamier version of the well-known Bleu d’Auvergne. Spread on a baguette, St. Agur would make a wonderful dessert alongside a nice Loupiac or Sauterne.

Cabot Clothbound Cheddar
Reg. $22.99/lb  sale $16.99/lb
This incredibly rare clothbound cheddar is made by Cabot from the milk of grass fed cows, then aged in the cellars of Jasper Hill; an incredible collaboration between cheese maker and affineur. Earthy, grassy notes complement the rich buttery flavor, making it a fabulous pair with big reds, sweeter white wines, and your favorite beer or ale.

Pierre Robert
Reg. $19.99/lb  sale $14.99/lb
This is a luscious triple-crème style cheese from 3rd generation cheesemaker Rouzaire. An aged version of Brillat-Savarin, it is creamy and decadently rich. Pair with Champagne or other sparkling wines.
