Cox Las Vegas employees volunteered 24,662 hours in 2015

The nearly 1,400 employees of Cox Communications, Las Vegas volunteered 24,662 hours in 2015, an average of nearly 18 hours per employee.

“Our employees have dedicated themselves to supporting dozens of nonprofit organizations in Southern Nevada and I couldn’t be prouder of their volunteer achievement for 2015, which nearly doubled our 13,000 employee volunteer hours in 2014,” said Cox Las Vegas Vice President and Market Leader Michael F. Bolognini.

Cox also recognizes quarterly “Community Champions,” selected from all Cox employee volunteers, throughout the year and donates $1,000 to the charity of choice for each community champion. Benefitting charities included the following in 2015: Alpha Men and Divas of Tomorrow; National Junior Basketball League; Refuge for Women and Big Brothers Big Sisters of Southern Nevada.

Employee volunteer efforts in 2015 included a canned food drive to support Salvation Army; a pet needs drive that supported The Animal Foundation; a back-to-school supply drive which supported Olive Crest and Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth, as well as support of other nonprofit organizations and community events throughout the year.

CAPTION: Last summer, Cox employee volunteers helped load back-to-school supplies donated by employees to benefit children and families at Olive Crest and teens at Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth’s Teen Drop-In Center.
