AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM 2015-2016

SPRING SEMESTER
From 2/1/16 to 6/15/16

Lyceum Kennedy

French American School

MISSION

Lyceum Kennedy's After School Program is offered to students from Preschool to High School. We strive to provide a safe, supervised environment for children and teenagers that increases school and community connectedness, academic achievement, physical activity and social skills. These organized group activities give students a chance to socialize with others students, strengthen friendships and make new ones while learning. Our teachers and activity vendors are experienced and knowledgeable. We provide a well-rounded curriculum that is designed to challenge and entertain your children, while helping them realize their full potential. Homework help is provided each afternoon, from Monday through Friday.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Please review each activity's description to find out important details such as age range, fee, teacher and schedule. Fees are for the entire semester. Please note that all activities are subject to cancellation if the minimum number of students enrolled is not reached. If an instructor is absent, students will go to After School Care or Homework help.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

TO REGISTER
