CODE OF ETHICS

Members shall subscribe to the following Code of Ethics, which is adopted by all members of NARI Greater Cleveland. Members of NARI are pledged to observe the highest standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conducting of business.

- By promoting only those products and services, which are functionally and economically sound, and which are consistent with standards of health and safety.
- By making all advertising and sales promotions factually accurate with respect to product description, performance specifications and cost analysis, and by avoiding those practices which tend to mislead or deceive the consumer with respect to competitive pricing, savings claims or the nature and significance of contracts, warranties, finance agreements, completion certificates, lien waivers, or liability and worker's compensation insurance.
- By writing all contracts and warranties such that they are fair and mutually beneficial to all parties concerned, such that they are free of ambiguities of omissions which tend to obscure contractual obligations, and such that warranty terms and provisions are free of the capacity to mislead or deceive the customer as to the quality or longevity of the product or service.
- By honoring all contractual obligations in a reasonably prompt manner that is fair to all parties concerned.
- By promptly acknowledging and acting on all customer complaints and in situations where complaints appear unreasonable and persistent, by encouraging the customer to initiate an approved third party dispute settlement mechanism.
- By refraining from an act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition and to thereby promote the private enterprise system and its guarantee of equal rights for all.

I have reviewed the information in this Membership Application and confirm it to be correct to the best of my knowledge.
