Today's Program...

Dave Hughes introduced today's speaker, Ashley White-Yoshiza, Community Coordinator for Washtenaw Prisoner Reentry (WPR). WPR is part of Michigan Prisoner Reentry which was started in 2005 as a statewide strategic approach to reducing crime and creating safer neighborhoods and better citizens. WPR is administered by Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County under contract with the Michigan Department of Corrections.

Prisoner Reentry recognizes that about 95% of all prisoners return home. Research shows that returning prisoners have a better chance of turning their lives around if they have jobs, stable housing, and treatment that addresses the risk factors that lead to re-offending--services like cognitive restructuring, substance abuse treatment and mental health services. The WPR creates individually tailored Transitional Accountability Plans and engages the parolee, field agent and community resources to ensure that they are carried out. The WPR focuses especially on the 60 percent of returning prisoners with the greatest need—those who are at high or moderate risk of failing unless they have a support network and strong supervision.

How well is it working? Before WPR was launched, one in two parolees was returning to prison within two years, either from new crimes or parole violations. That fraction has been reduced to one in three. Michigan's prison population grew by nearly 500% between 1973 and 2003. The number of prisoners has declined by almost 7,500 since March 2007 and is at its lowest level since 1999 allowing the state to close 14 correctional facilities and reduce spending on prisons by $293 million annually.

WPR relies heavily on support from area employers and community service organizations like Kiwanis for the success of its program. To learn more click here.

- Thousands of Lives Touched

Guests at our Club... Marianne Clauw introduced today's guests: Esther Hampton, wife of William Hampton; prospective member Griffith Dick, guest of Bob Johnson; Kristy Cooper, Executive Director of the Children's Literacy Network and guest of Charmin Archer; Jonathan Pevarnek of Circle K; prospective member Andrew Houle; and Devon Colberg, Washtenaw Prisoner Reentry.

Announcements...

- Jim Carey announced the Mott Dinner will be this Thursday, 5-7pm.
- President John Goff recognized Immediate Past President John Dahl for his service as president last year. John was given a rousing standing ovation in thanks.
- President John also reported on Board actions. The 2014-15 budget was adopted with total cash giving of $217,000 which is down $30,000 from last year primarily due to costs of transitioning to the new warehouse. The budget will be reviewed mid-year to see if actual income/expense allows an increase in budgeted gifting. More volunteer labor would help the budget. The Board also approved allowing the quarterly Kiwanis District meetings to be held in our building this year.
- Dan Dever advised that confusion amongst the staff at Scio Township did not place us on the agenda for tomorrow (Tuesday) night. Had we been, they would have discussed our warehouse proposal, and then set it up for a vote on the 28th of October, being two weeks later. Recognizing that the error was theirs, and that the delay impacts us, they are setting this on for the meeting of October 28th for a vote, skipping the discussion step. This presumes that the vote will be affirmative, and there is no controversy, or else someone would have wanted it discussed.
- Follow Up from Last Week - Here is the link to the Ann Arbor Steam website. Our speaker, Joan Fitzgibbon, reports it is a work in progress due to the district changing platforms. <http://www.a2schools.org/a2steam.home/home>

Fines and Happy Dollars...

Fines: John Dahl proposed a fine on Dale Leslie—which oddly met with general approval before John could even state the reason for the fine. It seems Dale referred to John's new granddaughter in last week's Hospitality report as a grandson. Dale explained he knew it was one or the other. The incorrect choice cost him a quarter. George Gilligan then proposed through Past President John Dahl that any table without two past presidents be fined—passed. Nick Dever proposed through Past President Dale Leslie that John Dahl's table be fined for a breach of decorum—passed. Finally, Peter Schork proposed a fine on any Kiwanis male sitting at a table with fewer than six females—budget necessity overrode a robust "No" vote allowing this motion to pass.

Happy Dollars: John Goff was sad for the passing of two close friends but happy for having known them. Bryce Babcock was happy for a recent 3-week trip visiting family in Romania. Garry Donner happily regaled us with stories indicating the need for remedial math classes. Charmin Archer was happy for the Family Learning Institute van purchased with their grant from our club. Joe Medrano enjoyed a very pleasant 8-day cruise to Nova Scotia. Marianne Clauw is pleased to be planning a trip to Los Angeles to visit her son. Ron Williams was happy three times over: to give Packer fan John Goff a cheese-head hat; to enjoy the culture of Ann Arbor; and to enjoy fellowship at Kiwanis. Jim Kane was happy for the Gershwin piano concert he attended. Fred King was happy for Bob Carr's birthday, for the I Go Pogo book gift from Harry Cross, and for Friday the 13th happening on Monday this month.

Stuff You Should Know...

3-Minute Speech:

William Hampton gave his 3-minute speech. William was pleased his wife Esther was present today and thanked Jesus Christ for the many blessings in his life. He is happy to be a Kiwanian and reported attending 84.2% of meetings in his 11 months and 16 days of membership as tracked by his sponsor, Cliff Sheldon! William said we may count on him to learn our names and individual qualities, to keep his word, and to not forget CBS—Complete his thoughts; Be brief; and Sit down.

Interclubs:

Dave Drake reminded everyone there is a super-interclub at Ann Arbor Western on October 28. We also have an interclub planned at Ypsilanti on October 22—our own Jane Talcott will be speaking to the Ypsilanti club that day!
