Today's Program...

Ann Mattson

Ann Mattson introduced our speaker: Judge Steven Rhodes. Judge Rhodes attended Purdue University where he received a Mechanical Engineering degree and then went on to the University of Michigan where he graduated from Law School. He and his family have lived in Ann Arbor since 1970.

Judge Steven Rhodes was a United States Bankruptcy Judge in the Eastern District of Michigan (Detroit) for nearly 30 years until his retirement in February, 2015. He served as chief judge of the Bankruptcy Court from 2002 to 2009. He was appointed the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Sixth Circuit in 1997 and served as its chief judge from 2002 to 2004. He is past Associate Editor of the American Bankruptcy Law Journal and is a fellow of the American College of Bankruptcy. He is past chair of the National Conference of Bankruptcy Judges Endowment for Education.

Judge Rhodes served as Vice President for Research and on the Executive Committee of the American Bankruptcy Institute which, in 2009 awarded him its Distinguished Services Award. He co-authored The Ponzi Book: A Legal Resource For Unraveling Ponzi Schemes which was published in 2012.

Bankruptcy judges have large caseloads and do difficult, important, and often heart-wrenching work. They generally toil away far from the public eye. And so it was with Judge Rhodes until July 2013, when the chief judge of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals appointed him to preside over the City of Detroit's bankruptcy case. This was the largest, longest, and most highly publicized municipal bankruptcy ever filed. When Judge Rhodes began presiding over the Detroit Bankruptcy the city was 18 billion dollars in debt. Settlement of this debt was essential for the survival of the city. In November 2014, after nearly a year and a half of rigorous work, Judge Rhodes confirmed the City's plan of adjustment.

Not surprisingly Crain's Detroit Business honored Judge Rhodes as one of its 2014 Newsmakers of the Year and the Michigan Lawyers Weekly named him 2014 Lawyer of the Year.

Announcements...

- We are still optimistic that the new Kiwanis Center West will open in May.
- Meetings:
 - ◆ Board Meeting at the regular time
 - ◆ Past Presidents were to meet right after today's meeting
 - ◆ The Eliminate Task Force will meet at the regular time
 - ◆ The membership Growth and Education Committee will meet next Monday, May 18, at 1:15pm
- For the sale on Saturday, May 23rd, President John Goff will need assignments for Sporting Goods, Hardware, Garden, beds and toys, and sorting, and of course we will need dockers. Some assignments lists run through the end of May. If submitted assignment lists did not include all of May then please update them and re-submit them as soon as possible.
- Ron Gardner stated that the Eliminate Committee is on schedule to meet our goal. It was noted that it is encouraged to exceed that goal.
- President John Goff noted that since we are now a landlord that we now need a professional book keeper.
- Lynne Lande, Chair of the Membership Committee asked for members to reach out to long standing members who can't routinely attend regular meetings.
- Gretchen Preston and Greg Meisner are working on the relocation of each of the departments within the Kiwanis building in Ann Arbor after the move of some merchandise to the new Kiwanis Center West.
- Mark Wishka spoke about the relocation to the new Kiwanis Center West.

Fines: Dale Leslie proposed a fine on Dave Drake for mispronouncing Sue Petrisin's name. Sue is the International President elect... She will be the first woman to serve as Kiwanis International President. And Sue is from Michigan! She will be speaking at the Manchester Super Interclub announced by Dave Drake.

Happy Dollars: Happy Dollars were suspended for this week. However: Our Guest Speaker, Mr. Steven Rhodes, contributed one Happy Dollar which was accepted.

Old News from Days Gone By...

By the Late Ernest (Ernie) C. Laetz (Via Dale Leslie's Story Archive)

Editor's Note: Ernie Laetz is the legendary club member who greeted customers at the front Sale door wearing a tux and a sombrero; the latter is preserved in a display case near the elevator.

My Fondest Memories Center Around Our Members and Club Activities

I joined the club in 1953. We met in the old Allene Hotel—on the corner of Huron and Fourth Avenue—on the second floor, in the L-shaped Brindle Room. Lunch was $2.50. Ike Stein—Bud's dad—would greet us in the lobby at the foot of the stairs with an open dry cleaning bag for any clothes we wished to donate to the rummage sale. He would take them back to his dry cleaning business and have them cleaned for the next sale.

The Mott Hospital School Program at U-M began in our club (it is now a statewide Kiwanis project) in 1922. At first, we provided Sunday school teachers for the children. Then, we funded a half-time teacher and furnished funds for instructional furniture. The project grew from that point. Ashley Clague—a local grocer and a past president of our club—made toys for the children and remained a pillar in our Mott program. Children could now attend school even though they were hospitalized.

Other Kiwanis members that come to mind are Fred Jaeger (who did a lot of work around the club), Early Risky, and Russ Sharpe. Whenever we had a close vote on a fine, Earl would stand up and count "yeas" and "nays". His tally would be "official" although the result was subject to his interpretation. Sharpe could never get his motions for fines passed. However, at one meeting he slyly asked if everyone in favor of his motion would stand and then signaled our piano player to strike up the National Anthem. Everyone stood and the motion passed!

Annual Meeting and Election of Next Year's Officers and Directors May 18, 2015

- ⇒ President: Betsy Ford
- ⇒ President Elect: Alan Burg
- ⇒ Two year terms are proposed for the five people recommended by the election committee: George Gilligan, William Hampton, Joe Medrano, Bill Robb and Ray Argyle.
- ⇒ Martha Petroski was nominated from the floor and will be on the ballot.
- ⇒ Jim Carey has resigned from the board and the Nominating Committee recommends that Mr. Carey be replaced by Ellen Webb effective May 18 thru September 30, 2015.

Please address any questions to John Dahl.
