Today's Program...

Bill Hallock

Bill Hallock, a long-time club advisor to the Aktion Club, introduced today's program and described Aktion Club's history. Washtenaw Intermediate School District (WISD) teacher and Aktion Club Advisor, Diane Hughes, presented an overview of WISD Aktion Club activities. Bill introduced two Aktion Club members in attendance at the meeting, Ravine and Shallon. Ravine played the piano as we sang America at the beginning of our meeting.

Diane Hughes

The Aktion Club concept got its start in Florida in 1987 when Kiwanis Governor George Swartout organized the first Aktion Club for adults living with a disability. Aktion Clubs became an official Service Leadership Program of Kiwanis International in October 2000. In 2007 our own Don Kern led the founding of the WISD chapter with ten charter members. Today, the WISD club has 30 members and world-wide there are over 500 Aktion clubs with more than 11,000 members.

WISD Aktion Club members are drawn primarily from WISD classrooms where students range from 18-26 years of age. However, older individuals are allowed to remain in the club even after graduation from WISD. Membership is voluntary and the club meets at the Kiwanis Activities Center at 10am on the first and third Thursdays of the month.

Leadership development, service projects, and fundraising activities are key parts of Aktion Club. Shopping days at the Thrift Sale, Salvation Army bell ringing, making blankets for Mott Hospital, and the Bowling for Dollars fundraiser were particularly popular activities. Aktion Club members work with Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti Kiwanians and U-M Circle K members on many of their projects. The Aktion Club motto—Where Development has No Disability—was evident at today's meeting. Go here for more information on Aktion Club.

Fines and Happy Dollars...

Fines:

Dan Dever proposed a fine on President John Goff for talking about fines as a budget issue but not actually imposing and collecting any fines—resoundingly passed. Dale Leslie through Past President Kathy Barden-Perlberg moved that anyone who hadn't heard (or was it had heard?) the MSU Marching Band play be fined—passed. Nick Dever then proposed that anyone, or anyone with a family member, who had been an MSU Marching member be fined—passed.

Happy Dollars:

John Bassett had ten happy dollars for the people that helped prepare the Membership Digest (Chris Winkler, Sharon Keyes, and Bob Gray) and for the advertisers and sponsors. Peter Schork was happy to see Diane Hughes as today's speaker, happy to second Ken Shaw's call for a co-chair to help coordinate the Christmas Sale, and happy to recognize Jim Wolfington's outstanding work in support of the Thrift Sale. Alexa Wutt of Circle K was pleased to inform us of the opportunity to donate toward her Circle K Service Day fundraiser—her hair will go to raise money for Eliminate! Jeff Lawther of the Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation happily advised us of the Thomas Oliver Holiday Greeting Program. Ann Mattson was happy for Circle K's help at the sale and for the work of the Personnel Committee in devising and implementing child-protection guidelines for our club. Jim Kane was happy to have helped at last week's Mott Dinner and for Jim Carey's efforts in coordinating the event. Claire Dahl was $100 happy to be sitting with her hubby ♥ at lunch again, and for his 100% effort on behalf of the club during his tenure as president. John Goff enjoyed his trip to Lynchburg, VA to see family. Clar Dukes was happy to remember being taken on as a U-M game usher by Bud Stein 31 years ago. Lloyd Kitchens and all in attendance were delighted that Lloyd was reported cancer-free as of last week's CT scan.

- You may remember when AAPS music educator Dan Long was an honorary member. His wife Kay has been under treatment for a serious illness and expected to hear the results of therapy this week. The Long's address is 1524 Warwick Court, AA 48103.
- Former member Jim King's daughter, Victoria Heinecke, recently shared the following note about her late father:

Jim King

I was in Michigan from April through September with my brother Chris, helping Dad move to assisted living. Dad's health had been rapidly declining because of lung issues in the past month, and he passed away on August 31. Chris and his wife were with him when he passed—he was not alone and he was not in pain. I was unable to notify all of his many friends prior to the funeral, and wanted to let you know it was held on September 6 in Indiana. His final resting place is beside our mother, Joanna, in Indiana. There is a memorial page for Dad at <http://obits.dignitymemorial.com/dignity-memorial/obituary.aspx?n=James-King&lc=4117&pid=172334104&mid=6105317>.

A Bit of Our History... (Thanks to Dale Leslie)

It was a Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor tradition as the late Ernie Laetz cordially greeted the Kiwanis Thrift Day shoppers at the front door of the Kiwanis Activities Center (KAC) adorned in a stately tux and a large sombrero. Quite a combination! He was a top salesman too! The club proudly shows the Laetz sombrero in a special clear display case in its meeting room at the KAC.

Ernie was a very active 46-year-member of the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor (1953-1999), a Kiwanis Legend of Honor recipient and logged several consecutive terms as a Trustee representing the club and Division 10 on the Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation, which, in part, funds the Community Life program at the C.S. Mott Children's Hospital. Adelaide (Addy) Laetz, Ernie's widow, continues the family legacy in 2014 as a volunteer at the Kiwanis Thrift Sale.
