Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor

Volume 7, Issue 6

November 9, 2015

Today's Program...

THE ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION (Michigan Great Lakes Chapter ~ <http://www.alz.org/mglc/>) is not going away anytime soon and "Thank the Good Lord" for that fact. Jennifer Wolfe Howard, LMSW, Executive Director of the Association, provided a sobering assessment of the affect of Alzheimer disease, a terminal illness of the brain that is the country's sixth leading cause of death. It changes a person's personality, character and ability to function independently. One in nine people in the 65 and older age group has Alzheimer. (Nearly one-third of the people age 85 and older have the disease.) She outlined the 10 warning signs of the disorder which are explained on their web site. At present, there is no cure for the disease although some medications can delay its advancement and provide temporary relief. Howard is proud of the Alzheimer's Association vision: a world without Alzheimer disease. They support the advancement of research; enhanced care and the reduction of the risk of dementia through the promotion of brain health. The Association helpline—800.272.3900—is open 24/7 to address all issues of the disease, she said.

In Arlington, TX, past club member DON LEATHERMAN was diagnosed with an aggressive form of lymphoma a week before his passing on November 2nd. DON's wife, Nancy, who was under Hospice care for Parkinson Disease, died two days earlier on October 31st. Their daughter Anne Cox has traveled to Arlington and can be reached through her husband Norm's business: The Greenway Collaborative, Inc., 205 Nickels Arcade, AA 48104 -2409 and at 734.239.5967.

A popular club speaker and friend, author and former AA News columnist, Don Faber, suffered an aphasia stroke a week ago Monday night (11/02). A friend of Faber reports, "He has no lateral paralysis, and is taking a few steps at a time. If you were to walk into his room (St. Joe's Hospital), you wouldn't know that anything devastating happened to him. There is much uncertainty ahead, but my hope is that with intense therapy and work he'll make progress toward regaining his verbal faculties."

For instance, the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Morning Edition is planning a club affiliation with Thurston Elementary School in Ann Arbor through the Kiwanis Sponsored Youth program. Our club could sponsor an affiliation with a local school too. Manchester Kiwanian Cindy Kenney luckylu1954@gmail.com (wife of former AA Kiwanian Darrell Kenney) has guided a number of these successful and rewarding Kiwanis-School programs throughout the State. See Lt. Gov. JULANNE WILLIAMS for further information.

Grants:

The Annual Kiwanis Grant Application Deadline is: Friday, 11/13/2015, 11:59 p.m.

Known worldwide as the place for the
"funkiest" gift.

Happy Birthday to You...

Doug Raab, co-owner of Washtenaw Dairy (a consistent provider to the club, including providing tasty donuts) will celebrate his 90th birthday on November 21st. I believe his work record is unmatched: he has been employed at Washtenaw Dairy for over 70 years! I asked him on Pearl Harbor Day, "Doug, do you remember December 7, 1941 with the attack on Pearl Harbor?" He responded quickly, "Why, yes. I was sweeping off the front steps at Washtenaw Dairy; a car pulled up and the driver shared the startling news." Stop down to the Dairy—have a donut or an ice cream cone—and wish Doug well!

Board Summary from President Ford...

The Ann Arbor Kiwanis Board focused on two main topics in the November 3rd meeting, both related to the Kiwanis Center West (KCW) building at 100 N. Staebler Road.

Doug Ziesemer and Bob Gray gave status reports on the building.

Bob provided the board members with a summary of improvements made to the office and cafeteria portions of the Kiwanis section. The committee taking on these improvements are Bob Gray, Bill Robb, Alan Burg, Ellen Webb and Nick Dever.

Bob detailed the status of 88 tasks designed to prepare and update six rooms for use by this club/foundation or other parties. The tasks range from painting to furnishing the office. Many of the projects involve electrical AV, PA and Security System installations. Extensive signage needs have also been addressed. Most of the tasks have been completed or are near completion.

Doug Ziesemer reported on the financial status of the building. He mapped out the structure for the Board, showing the 51,000 sf Kiwanis occupies of the total 121,000 sf building.

Doug updated the group about the current tenants, and prospects for vacant space and space soon to be vacated by the Sheridan Book Company. The Building and Equipment Committee is considering lease tenants with various square footage needs, and outlot buyers.

Doug also provided a budget summary of the building. Without our largest tenant, it appears that Kiwanis can maintain the building for our purposes. When a major tenant is secured, or if we sell an outlot, our financial situation will dramatically change so that we can then return more of what the thrift sales make to the community. Doug said there is much interest in leasing or buying the property, but that nothing is yet firm.

The Board approved purchase of 3 strip doors for the KCW bays to keep the weather out. Total cost with installation and awnings $3,530.

Mark Wishka reported on the Ad-hoc Organization Committee. He reported that the committee members met with Simon Chafetz to outline goals and a timeline for completion. The goals include diffusing the burden on the president and treasurer, streamlining financial controls and reporting, and adjusting the current Club/Foundation structure to meet the greatly expanded needs of the group since the addition of KCW. The timeline is to have a general organization proposal by January 1, 2016 with implementation by March 1, 2016

On a different note, Club membership is at 141 with 4 new members in the works.

Thrift Sales totals for October are $50,757, $1,250 greater than 2014.
