Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor

Volume 6, Issue 4

October 27, 2014

Today's Program...

George Gilligan served as Master of Ceremonies inducting honorary members for club year 2014-15. Four honorary members were inducted and a fifth, Kenneth Brostrom, will be inducted at a later meeting due to illness. Following their introduction, each honorary member made brief remarks. George invited the inductees to join us for lunch as their schedules permit and encouraged them to take the opportunity of their honorary membership to help continue the Kiwanis tradition of service.

Dan Dever introduced Douglas Lewis, an attorney and Director of U-M Student Legal Services. Doug has had a life-long involvement with youth programs—many involving horses. He is currently involved with Washtenaw 4-H among numerous other youth organizations and has worked to help thousands of kids.

Don Kossick introduced John C. Mendler, the owner/operator of Mallek's Service for 37 years. From performing those little extra services for his older customers to hiring and mentoring Pioneer High Auto Tech students, John exemplifies community service every day in the operation of his business.

Joe Medrano introduced Carol L. Presley, former Senior Coordinator at the Pittsfield Senior Center. Carol has volunteered at the Thrift Sale, attended Kiwanis conventions, and was a member of the Dexter Kiwanis club. Joe guaranteed she would join as a regular member before her year of honorary membership concludes!

Molly Kelly introduced Maryvonne J. Sarfati who Molly described as a person who helps others in need. She was the first person to bring Molly to the Thrift Sale and has been an avid shopper there since 1974. Molly credits Maryvonne with teaching a very important lesson—how to live comfortably below your means.

- Dan Dever reported financial issues have been resolved with the seller of the new warehouse property. The township is expected to approve the proposal on October 28. The only remaining contingency after that is financing which should be settled in 7-10 days.
- John Goff announced that our Salvation Army bell ringing day will be December 20. Garry Evans is our Bell Ringing Program Coordinator. He projects we will need 90 bell ringers and numerous other volunteers this year. More information will be provided at the November 10 meeting.

Fines and Happy Dollars...

Fines:

Dale Leslie, implying involvement in UM/MSU football shenanigans by today's Circle K representatives, proposed a fine on the neighboring table. A profound sense of fairness amongst the membership denied the motion. Bill Robb, through Past President Kathy Barden-Perlberg, proposed a fine on all non-MSU folks in recompense for the abuse heaped on MSU fans. Kathy, in a disputed call, ruled the motion approved. Finally, Ron Gardner sought to dampen the happiness of MSU fans by imposing a one cent fine for each point of the 24-point winning margin; rounded to 25 cents—passed.

Happy Dollars:

Kathy Stroud is happy to be a first-time grandma with the arrival of grandson Joe David (JD) on October 1. Bill Tasch was $5 happy for a fly fishing trip on the Missouri River. John Sampsele had five happy dollars for the return of his wife to Ann Arbor after an extended assignment at the NIH. Jonathan Pevarnek was happy for a new job at Google in New York starting in January—good luck Jonathan! Andrew Houle was delighted to see the Lion's great comeback win, and for the Saints' win over the Packers. Fred King was $3 happy for the cards he received, the pacemaker that works 98% of the time, and the good work of U-M Hospital. Alexa Wutt was delighted to report $125 in the hat she circulated for her Circle K Service Day fundraiser. Harry Cross, the big winner in a St. Francis raffle was happy to offer $9.99 oil change or wiper blade coupons to Kiwanians in need of auto service. Bob Gray was $3 happy for the good wishes, cards, and visits during his recovery from hip surgery. Max Ziegler was happy to be back, and for the well wishes following his recent knee surgery. Fred Sanchez was happy for MSU's win and for U-M's defensive effort. He claims dual loyalties bleeding green, white, maize, and blue!
