

Nikkei Chronicles #2: Nikkei+
 -Stories of Mixed Language,
 Traditions, Generations and Race-

Being Nikkei is inherently a state of mixed traditions and cultures.

Share your stories with our global audience! Articles accepted through September 30, 2013 at 6PM (PST).

Visit 5dn.org/nikkei-plus for more information and submission guidelines.

Next »

Explore Stories

-Stories of Mixed Language, Traditions, Generations & Race-
 Share your Nikkei+ story! Submit by September 30. See guidelines >>

Get Updates

Sign up for email updates

- Journal feed
- Events feed
- Comments feed

Support this project

Discover Nikkei is a place to connect with others and share the Nikkei experience. To continue to sustain and grow this project, we need your help!

Nima-kai Community
 Join the Discover Nikkei global community, where our Nima connect and share! Our Nima-kai community includes people around the world interested in learning about and sharing the Nikkei experience. Meet some of our Nima:

more nima

Nima of the Month

Francesca (San Francisco, California, United States)
 Francesca is a writer specializing in multicultural themes, art, politics, satire, comedy, and popular culture for newspapers, books, radio, the web, and

Latest Articles

Submit an article

- The Greatest "Thing" in America
- Kagayaku Tookate Dew \(石川フィルム\(2\)\) トウラードス権民地事業
- Language and Silence — The Poetry of Asano Miyata Saijo \(1891-1966\)
- Strawberry Hill, British Columbia: A New Perspective On the 1942 Evacuation
- NOVELA: Evodio el suertudo - 5 de 16

more articles

The 21st Century Museum: Significant artifacts selected by Japanese American National Museum Volunteers

JANM

EN 0 comments

Search the Nikkei Album
Advanced Search

Login or register
to contribute to the Nikkei Album

Welcome to the NEW Nikkei Album!
We've launched Nikkei Album in beta, so everyone can now start uploading and creating their own albums. There may be things that don't work quite right yet. Please email us to report any errors.

- Browse the Nikkei Album
- Albums
 - Items

- Help
- What is the Nikkei Album?
 - Nikkei Album — How-To
 - Frequently Asked Questions

- More albums by JANM
- Drawing the Line: Japanese American Art, Design & Activism in Post-War Los Angeles
 - GIJRA: April 1974 issue
 - GIJRA: February 1973 issue
 - GIJRA: January 1971 issue
 - GIJRA: April 1969 issue
 - 会米日米人博物館『コモン・グランド - コミュニティの心』

-Stories of Mixed Language, Traditions, Generations & Race-
Share your Nikkei+ story
Submit by September 30.
See guidelines >>

Get Updates

facebook
twitter

Sign up for email updates

Journal feed
Events feed
Comments feed

Support this project

Discover Nikkei is a place to connect with others and share the Nikkei experience. To continue to sustain and grow this project, we need your help!

Ways to help >>

A project of the
JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM
Major support by

View as: thumbnails list slideshow

< previous 1 2 3 ... 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 next >

Eileen Sakamoto - Baseball Team Photo

Eileen Sakamoto is a Wednesday & Saturday Volunteer in the Museum Store and Visitor Services. For her artifact, Eileen chose a 1927 baseball team photograph from Utah. In the photo, she made a surprising personal discovery.

The Blanket Journey

Rosa Cruz Lopez

The family member I decided to interview was my sister Getsmany Sarmiento. She was born March 12, 1994 in Durango, Mexico. She came to Los Angeles when she was five years old. She is now nineteen years old and is currently attending college. She came to Los Angeles with her grandina to come live with her mom.

The artifact she brought with her when she migrated here was a blanket. The blanket is yellow it has a teddy bear holding on to balloons and birds around the bear. She has had the cover for nineteen years now. Her godfather Gustabo gave it to her mom as a baby shower gift. This blanket is special to her because her godfather gave it to her mom as a baby shower gift and it was the first blanket they used to wrap her with when she was just a new born. The cover is also special to her because it reminds her of her childhood and when she use to have picnics with

