INDEPENDENT CALIFORNIA COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Guidance Counselors, Students, and Parents:

Education is the passport to success. The Association of Independent California Colleges and Universities (AICCU), which represents 77 private colleges and universities with over 210 campuses throughout the state of California, is committed to preparing students for that success, both academically and professionally.

The 46th Edition of the Guide to California Private Nonprofit Colleges and Universities highlights each of our successful California colleges and universities. Students should use this guide to explore their options and identify the institutions that best fit their educational goals. After narrowing their search, students and their families are encouraged to take campus tours, talk to students and professors, and even sit in on a class.

In addition, CaliforniaColleges.edu has helpful information for students and families as they plan and prepare for their college experience.

AICCU institutions include world-famous research and traditional liberal arts colleges and universities, as well as professional institutions specializing in business, law, and medicine. Our member colleges and universities confer more than half of California's Masters and Doctorate degrees, making them a leader in preparing our professional workforce.

We are very proud of our commitment towards a global education enriched by a diverse faculty and student body, and built on academic strengths. This has allowed us to emerge as a pioneer in developing future leaders who will address the challenges of our changing world with ethics and compassion.

AICCU Institutions are:

- Affordable: 78% of AICCU students receive institutional grant aid
- Diverse: AICCU's ethnically diverse campuses enrich learning environment
- Committed to Students: AICCU institutions average one faculty member for every 12 students
- Successful: one-on-one learning environment helps students graduate faster, with less student loan debt, and be more prepared for employment

Interdisciplinary collaboration helps our faculty and students address the challenging problems of the 21st century while creating "real world" learning platforms for broad-based innovation and dynamic creativity. Our students are encouraged to question and expand their knowledge in the classroom and extend that learning through research, community engagement, and global education.

Selecting the right college or university is one of the most important decisions a student will ever make and I am pleased to provide this resource to assist you in your journey of discovery and development.

Best wishes with your search,

Kristen F. Soares
President

CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE OF THE ARTS

24700 McBean Parkway, Valencia, Ca 91355 | www.calarts.edu

California Institute of the Arts (CalArts) is an internationally recognized school for the performing and visual arts—Art, Critical Studies, Dance, Film/Video, Music and Theater. The CalArts educational philosophy combines rigorous instruction with individualized attention, a process that empowers students to define their own personal objectives—and to develop and refine their own distinctive artistic voices. Given more creative freedom than at traditional art schools and conservatories, our students, in turn, are self-motivated, passionate, and deeply committed to their work. They are accepted into CalArts primarily on the basis of their artistic ability; once here, they produce art from day one.
