

Ballard Performing Arts Music Camp Information

Fall Music Camps - September 2016

As the school year ends, we're already thinking about September! Camp in the fall helps your musicians start the new year unified and ready to play and sing.

Music camp fees have not increased in several years, although the costs of transportation, food, and camp locations have gone up. Thanks to the generous donations of our families, the Ballard Performing Arts Booster Club is able to cover the bulk of the increases, allowing for only a $10 increase to $160 per student. The camp fee pays for all the transportation to and from camp, two nights' lodging, meals, and coaches' fees.

Registration paperwork AND Camp fees of $160 are due on July 1st*
