NORTHWEST CHAINSAW CARVING COMPETITION

As seen on Discover reality shows "Saw Dogs" episode Race to the finish (<http://vimeo.com/48782194>). Promoter, Steve Backus has organized the world's largest chainsaw contest for eighteen years, winning first in many and placing in the top ten over a hundred times. As the Pemco Insurance Roadside Chainsaw Carver Profile #16, Steve has brought chainsaw carving into the mainstream public. This year competitors from across North America will be in competition for the title as Chainsaw Champion Race!

LUMBERJACK SHOW (FRIDAY AND SATURDAY)

Lumberjacks will wield axes, crosscut saws, and power saws in events such as the springboard chop, axe throw, single buck, and hot saws just to name a few. Be impressed as they ascend the spar poles for tree topping and speed climbing. Especially popular is the dangerous log rolling event. The precision and skill required for these events is sure to leave a lasting impression in the minds of the whole family.
