Ivan Swaner named as the 2004 Wagon Days Grand Marshal

Join the Wagon Days Committee, the City of Ketchum, and the Sun Valley/Ketchum Chamber and Visitors Bureau in honoring Ivan Swaner, the 2004 Wagon Days Grand Marshal, at a reception Friday, September 3rd, 5 p.m. at Memory Park in Ketchum. . In addition to paying homage to Ketchum's mining history, the Wagon Days event also recognizes individuals who have cared enough about their community to under take its betterment.

Swaner is one of the original founders of the Wagon Days Parade. He has maintained an active roll on the Wagon Days committee for nearly 50 years. In addition to his invaluable service to Wagon Days, Swaner has contributed to many community groups. He currently sits on the Blaine Country Historical Museum Board, the Trailing of the Sheep Committee, and the Blackjack Ketchum Shootout Board, to name a few. In 1998, the Sun Valley/Ketchum Chamber and Visitors Bureau named Swaner volunteer of the year.
