

FREE WATER-WISE LANDSCAPE SERIES

CREATING BEAUTIFUL LANDSCAPES THAT SAVE WATER

Join Wood River Land Trust, the Cities of Ketchum, Sun Valley and Hailey for water-saving tips, tools and design ideas for your home landscape.

THURS., MAY 14:

HOW TO CONVERT TO A DROUGHT-TOLERANT LAWN USING SEED OR SOD

Native or drought-tolerant lawns can save 50 - 67% on water use and save on maintenance and fertilizer.

Learn techniques for conversion with seed or sod, then tour the

SAWTOOTH BOTANICAL GARDEN
Celebrating Plants • Inspiring People

Sawtooth Botanical Garden for ideas for your home.

Time: 5:30 p.m. – 6:30 p.m.

Meet at Sawtooth Botanical Garden

THURS., MAY 21:

WATER WISE HOME TOUR with Big Wood Landscape

Mike Olenick will show how you can be a good steward while creating innovative and interesting landscapes using native plant material, less water and chemicals.

Time: 5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

Meet at 991 Foxmoor Drive, Hailey

Light refreshments included.

THURS., JUNE 4:

NATURALIZED LANDSCAPE HOME TOUR with Webb Landscapes

A tour showcasing terraced garden beds, native plants and a drought tolerant lawn which creates a beautiful aesthetic and saves water.

Time: 5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

Meet at 430 North Canyon (Warm Springs), Ketchum

Light refreshments included.

THURS., JUNE 18:

NATIVE & NATURALIZED HOME TOUR with Clemens Associates, Advanced Irrigation Solutions and Whitehead Landscaping

Discuss design elements, native plants and sod, and state-of-the-art irrigation technologies for a larger landscape.

Time: 5:30 - 6:30 p.m.

Meet at 108 Wedlen Lane, Sun Valley

Light refreshments included.

WWW.WOODRIVERLANDTRUST.ORG

info at: woodriverlandtrust.org