Overview of EDI

Established in 1994, the Executive Development Institute (EDI) is a Pacific Northwest non-profit agency with a proven approach to developing culturally diverse leaders. EDI partners with over 50 Northwest corporations to meet the growing imperative for global leaders and provides exclusive Asian and Hispanic leadership development programs which are business relevant.

Today, over 900 alumni are contributing in leadership positions throughout the Pacific Northwest. EDI accelerates the development and advancement of multi-ethnic, dynamic and culturally insightful executives. EDI's multi-cultural participants excel to higher positions of influence across the public and private sectors.

In 2016, we have enrolled 63 individuals in five classes located in the Puget Sound area and Greater Portland.
