

The English-Speaking Union
National Shakespeare Competition
2016 MEMO TO TEACHERS

To: Teachers Interested in the English-Speaking Union National Shakespeare Competition
From: Education Department, The English-Speaking Union of the United States
Date: Fall 2016

We invite your school to celebrate the Bard by participating in the ESU National Shakespeare Competition! In this program, high school students nationwide read, analyze, perform and recite Shakespearean monologues and sonnets in as many as three qualifying stages: school, community (ESU Branch) and national levels. Learn more about it online at www.esuus.org in the Programs/National Shakespeare Competition section.

For those of you who participated in the program last year, we would like to express our deep appreciation for your dedication to this program and your students. You were part of a national effort involving 15,000 students and over 1500 teachers who encouraged their students to excel at Shakespeare. We hope your school continues to participate.

If your school has not yet taken part in our Competition, we hope that you will consider offering this exciting, educational program. Your students will develop essential skills (critical thinking, close reading and public speaking) and increase their self-confidence through reading, analysis and performance of Shakespeare.

In order to participate in the program, your school must do the following:

1. To sign-up with the Hawaii English-Speaking Union Branch, fill out the online School Participation Form (some exceptions apply). Confirm with your local ESU Branch Shakespeare Coordinator that your school is registered for the program.

Note: You are not guaranteed participation in the 2016 Competition until you receive this confirmation.

2. Review Competition materials. All the necessary materials to familiarize yourself with the Competition and encourage the participation of your students can be found on our teacher resource page. The 2015-2016 Teacher Handbook and other resources are available on our website at www.esuus.org. Some essentials included in the Teacher Handbook are:

- School Competition Rules & Instructions
- Sample Class Schedule & Lesson Plans
- Connection to National Standards
- Student Guidelines
- Judging Materials
- Suggested Monologue and Sonnet Lists

Note: Students' monologues cannot be more than 20 lines (verse or prose) according to the Folger Shakespeare Library editions of the plays (Simon & Schuster (2003-2013)). Free texts are available.

3. Hold an in-school Shakespeare competition (where students perform monologues from Shakespeare's plays). Select one student to represent your school at the community (ESU Branch) competition.
4. Submit your school winner's information to your local ESU Branch. Fill out the School Winner Entry Form. Return it (with copies of their monologue and sonnet selections) to your local ESU Branch Shakespeare Coordinator by the Branch deadline.

Prize Highlights: The winner of your community (ESU Branch) competition receives an all-expenses-paid trip to New York City to compete at the National Competition (usually at Lincoln Center). The national winner of the ESU National Shakespeare Competition receives an all-expenses-paid trip to study acting in Shakespeare's homeland, England. Last year teachers of the top three national winners also received full tuition scholarships to ESU/Folger Shakespeare professional development workshops and teaching materials.

Thank you for your interest in the English-Speaking Union National Shakespeare Competition. The Hawaii Branch may be contacted via e-mail at esuhawaii@gmail.com or by calling Branch President Mark Lawhorn at 808-352-2324. We look forward to working with you this year.
