Bambi Betts, Director

Teacher Leader Institute – Hawaii April 29 & 30, 2016

The Hawaii Association of Independent Schools is pleased to present this professional development opportunity, in collaboration with the Principals' Training Center (PTC). PTC was founded in 1989 to meet the professional development needs of leaders in schools around the world. Over 2500 educators have participated in PTC training programs.

The Hawaii Teacher Leader Institute (TLI) will be run by Bambi Betts, Director of PTC. Bambi has been actively involved with the PTC since its inception as PTC Founder, a course developer, trainer, and co-trainer for the PTC's Essential Skills courses. Until this year, Bambi was the CEO of the Academy for International School Heads (AISH) for nine years. She has held positions as Director of Escuela Campo Alegre, Deputy Superintendent and middle school Principal in Caracas, and also a senior school head in Portugal. Bambi is a leading consultant on a wide range of topics and conducts on-site training modules.

Institute and Registration Information

This is a 2-day institute designed to help Department Heads, Grade Level Leaders and Team Leaders understand both the complexity and importance of their roles and provide them with essential tools for effective leadership, including:

- Becoming a 'leader of learning'
- Exploring practices that provoke learning and build ownership on teams, departments, and committees
- Adapting tools for developing, implementing and monitoring curriculum at the department or grade level
- Practicing specific leadership strategies and models for focusing the work of a department or grade level team on student learning
