

Identity, Diversity & Inclusion: Starting the Conversation Together

A 2015 Schools of the Future Pre-Conference

Open to EDUCATORS (Gr. K-12) AND STUDENTS (Gr. 9-12) in DOE, charter, & independent schools

- ** What does diversity look like in Hawai'i?
- ** What does our diversity mean for our individual and collective sense of identity?
- ** How can schools be a catalyst for inclusion and change?

Monday, November 2, 2015
12 noon - 5 pm
'Iolani School
Sullivan Center for Innovation and Leadership, 4th Floor

Participation & Registration

No more than 6 representatives per school, please...

...and if students are participating, at least 2 students from each school & an adult advisor

$150/school AND $10/person

(For example, if one school were represented by 2 adults and 4 students, total fees would be $210.)

Lunch and snack provided

Payment payable to:

Punahou School

1601 Punahou St.

Honolulu, HI 96822

Attn: Renee Chang

Register HERE by Friday, October 23: <http://goo.gl/forms/2OFEf3XjTN>

We will be facilitated by Rosetta Lee, faculty member at Seattle Girls' School and speaker and trainer on cross cultural communication, identity development, gender and sexuality diversity, prejudice reduction and coalition building, and gender bias in classrooms. She is a featured speaker at the 2015 Schools of the Future Conference.

Join the conversation; build a network of schools committed to diversity, identity development & inclusion; and walk away with tools to take back to your school & community.

Questions? Please contact Megan Kawatachi (mkawatachi@iolani.org)
or Kaponi Ciotti (kciotti@waialae.edu)