Sharing Your Faith with Others

"When the Day of Pentecost had fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. Then there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and one sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance." (Acts 2:1-4)

The above scripture is the beginning of the description of the feast of Pentecost, during which we commemorate the "coming of the All-holy Spirit into the world, the completion of the Lord Jesus Christ's promise, and the fulfilment of the hope of the sacred disciples." We see the true power of God in this world as the Holy Spirit descends upon unlearned fishermen and fills them with wisdom, beginning their ministry for His Church by witnessing Jesus Christ as the Messiah, savior of this world.

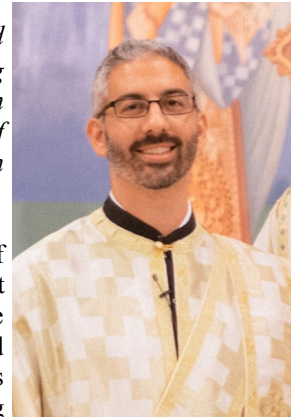

This event isn't just a single point in history, but an inspiration to us and a model for our Christian lives. Christ's death and Resurrection freed us from the bonds of death, but we are still bound to this world. Part of our covenant with Him is to repent from our sins and turn to Him. But the other part is to "make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you." This tells us that we must not be passive in how and to whom we witness our faith. While not all of us have the authority to physically baptize someone into the Church, we do have the power to learn God's word and to share it with others, bringing them to Christ. How can we do this? It can be simply an act of feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick or imprisoned, but there are many other ways.

How about having a conversation with our non-orthodox friends about our faith? Do we shy away from these discussions? If so, why?

What about inviting them to come to the Divine Liturgy with you? Did you know 90% of people who visit a church for the first time, do so because they are invited by someone they know? First experiences can be intimidating and being with someone who knows the ropes can make it much more comfortable. Our Divine Liturgy can be somewhat intimidating even if you're familiar with Orthodoxy, but imagine it for someone who is not. When is the last time you invited someone to come and experience it with you?

Finally, the disciples travelled near and far to spread the Gospel and let nothing stand in their way. Today, we are not limited by travel time as they were. With invention of the internet, we are free to communicate with anyone, anywhere, anytime and since more and more people own mobile smartphones this is even more so. Fr Chris Metropoulos, the founder of myOCN.net and new president of our sacred school, Hellenic College Holy Cross, recently gave an estimate that people with smartphones spend an average of eleven hours a day on them! This is a monumental amount of time and an amazing opportunity.

April, Showers Jubilee Women's Center With Love!

In April, the women at Jubilee Women's Center found themselves "showered" with love and hospitality from our wonderful St. Demetrios parishioners. Patti Kost, Karin Varlamos, Sofia Kenny and Barb Sancken prepared and shared a delicious dinner with the residents. These meals that are donated from our hearts, help low income women stretch their grocery budgets and provide much enjoyed fellowship.

We welcome involvement from all our parishioners. If you would like to host a meal, donate women's shoes, clothing and accessories, or volunteer, please contact Georgene Karambelas at 206 829 9337 or karambelas@comcast.net.

St. Philaret Homeless Thank You

For nearly 11 years, the St. Philaret Society has provided hot meals, clothing, toiletries, and other essential items directly to the homeless on the streets of Seattle. Our outings are held the first Wednesday of each month under the I-5 freeway (6th and Cherry St.) between 8-9 pm. Although an outreach ministry of St. Demetrios Church, we are supported 100% by individual monetary donations.

We are grateful to Tony and Litsa Polychronopoulos who sponsored the entire April outing in loving memory of Litsa's sister, Ermioni. Thank you to our shoppers and chefs, Doug and Jillian Chandler, Georgia's Bakery (tasty desserts), our clothing donors, and the many volunteers who serve our needy brothers and sisters in Christ.

We also welcome clothing donations, preferably men's outerwear, bedding, and toiletries, which may be placed in the large blue barrel located just outside the large hall. For more information, feel free to contact Chris Macris at (425) 888-2535 or chris@energynolutions.com. Christ is Risen!

Sharing Your Faith with Others

We do not cease being Christians when we are online, even though when we write or do things on the internet, it can seem as though no one else is watching us. However, now more than ever the opposite is true! Once we put something out there, not only can it not be removed, but it is able to be referenced whenever and wherever other people want. If we are not being careful stewards of how we use it, we can cause great damage, as I'm sure many of us have seen. But if we are using it to spread the Gospel in our own way, think of the good we can do by sharing God's love with someone who doesn't know it. If they baptised three thousand in one day, can you imagine what the disciples could done with this tool?

Let us take their example from the Feast of Pentecost and model our lives by witnessing our faith and inviting people to become a part of it.

Christ is Risen!!!
