

Summer means live music in Bloomfield

Weeknights will twinkle with sound this summer! Catch the Bloomfield Civic Band in four family concerts, and enjoy four shows in the Bloomfield Recreation Summer Concert Series. All are free. Bring blankets or folding chairs and enjoy snack trucks or bring your own goodies. Here's the full schedule:

Civic Band Concerts

Four free concerts will be performed at the Town Green (across from 84 Broad Street), each at 7 p.m. Dates and themes are listed below. In the event of rain, concert locations will be determined.

- Monday, June 27 - Best of the Season 1
- Tuesday July 5 - American Tribute
- Monday, July 11 - Best of the Season 2
- Monday, July 18 - Broadway Sing-Along

Free Summer Concert Series

Bloomfield Recreation Department will present its traditional free concerts in July and August. Three high-energy cover bands are on tap at Brookside Park. The final concert, at Foley Field, will be combined with National Night Out, to be preceded by a softball game between Bloomfield police and fire-fighters.

- Tuesday, July 12 - "Forever Ray," a tribute to Ray Charles, 7 p.m., Brookside Park.
- Tuesday, July 19 - "Nikki Torres & The Rhythm Machine Band," a tribute to Gloria Estefan, 7 p.m., Brookside Park.
- Tuesday, July 26 - "Slippery When Wet," a tribute to Bon Jovi, 7 p.m., Brookside Park.
- Tuesday, Aug. 2 - Summer Concert and National Night Out.
Gates open at 5:30 p.m. at Foley Field.
 - 6 p.m. softball game between PBA and FMBA. Free pizza, drinks, amusements and give-aways.
 - 7:30 p.m., "Joe Bataan & Barrio Boys," Latin, Soul and Salsa.
