

Free summer concert series goes on the road

For more than a decade Bloomfield Recreation has presented its Free Summer Concert Series at Brookside Park. This year, the concerts will go on the road to Brookside and three other parks. The final concert, on National Night Out, will be a joint venture with the Bloomfield Police Department and Township officials.

■ “The Nostalgix”- Tuesday, July 14

Classic 50s and 60s DooWop

7 p.m., Brookside Park

■ “The Wayne Brown Band” - Tuesday, July 21

Classic rock of the 60s, 70s and 80s

7 p.m., Vassar Field (behind St. Thomas Church)

■ “Enzo & The Bakers”- Tuesday, July 28

Classic Blues and Soul

7 p.m., Wright’s Field, Weaver Avenue

■ Concert and National Night Out - Tuesday, Aug. 4

“Time Machine” - Classic and Contemporary Pop

- Gates open at 5:30 p.m. at Foley Field
- Softball game between PBA and FMBA, 6 p.m.
- Live music, 7:30 p.m.
- Free hot dogs, pizza, drinks, amusements, give-aways