

Bloomfield Library presents . . .

• TV's Jamie Novak, the organizing specialist and author, will appear at Bloomfield Library on Monday, April 11 at 6 p.m. in "Keep This, Toss That for a Fresh Start to Spring." Learn how to de-clutter your closets and home and share some laughs. Novak has appeared on HGTV and QVC, and is a home blogger for Martha Stewart's Whole Living.

• Singer/Songwriter Michaela McClain of Montclair brings her folksy-soul sound — reminiscent of Carol King, Norah Jones and Alicia Keys — to the library on Saturday, April 16 at 2 p.m. She accompanies her rich mezzo-soprano voice with piano and guitar playing.

• Regina Radomski, author of "From Half to Whole: A Journey to Overcome the Battle Scars of Adoption and Living to Tell About It," will appear in a free talk and book signing on Monday, April 4, at 6 p.m. Regina and her husband adopted two older boys from Poland in 2005. If you are an adoptive parent or thinking about it, come for some insight.

• "Kaaterskill Falls," a novel by Allegra Goodman, will be discussed by the Library Book Club, on Monday, April 4 at 6:45 p.m. The book is a panoramic view of Orthodox Jewish life during modern-day summers in the Catskill Mountains. It was a New York Times Notable Book and a finalist for the National Book Award.

• Sports Memorabilia, Free Appraisals, Saturday, April 30, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Do you still have your childhood shoebox sports card collection from the 1950s? Or a flea market/swap meet treasure with unknown value? Michael Osacky will provide free verbal appraisals for vintage sports cards, programs, autographs, scorecards, advertising and more. Items must be pre-1975. Osacky is certified by the National Association of Professional Appraisers.