

Birth to Five Music and Activities to Support Perpetual Motor & Physical Development

Sign language can be used with activities, as well as music and movement, to enhance fine and gross motor skills. The SCORE curriculum provides hundreds of activity that enhance motor development with the accompanying signs.

The Time to Sign program also provides over 100 songs to sing and sign. These include songs for infants, toddlers, preschoolers, activity transitions, and songs in both English and Spanish.

