This is a great opportunity to learn more about attachment and the development of infants and toddlers. Students in Early Childhood, Social Work, Psychology and those preparing for a career in Infant Mental Health will gain valuable experience interacting with infants and fathers in this program.

AS A CHILD TEAM MEMBER, YOU WILL:

- provide child care and activities for infants and toddlers while their Dads attend group
- support Dads & their children during lunch time
- observe attachment behaviors between father & child
- assist with set-up and clean-up
- attend a debriefing session after each group
- document observations of parent-child interaction and child behaviors
- play a vital role in an ongoing research project

REQUIREMENTS:

In order to be part of the Child Team, the following requirements must be met:

- Attend a mandatory Child Team orientation.
- Complete the Starfish Volunteer intake process, including a DHS clearance, TB test, and criminal background check.
- Be available to attend group each week. We need volunteers on Mondays starting March 14 from 11:00am-3:00pm.
