

The Washtenaw ID Project

A group of diverse people, represented by black and grey silhouettes, standing in a line. The text is overlaid on the silhouettes.

WHEN YOU ARE CALLED TO HELP,
WILL YOU STEP
UP?*

The Washtenaw ID Project in Conjunction with the School of Social Work Presents

THE POLICING OF IDENTITY

THE CHECKERED PAST OF THE ID CARD - A PRESENTATION BY CASS ADAIR - PHD CANDIDATE

Tuesday, January 26th, 2016 5:00pm to 6:30pm
Cheese, Veggie and Fruit Platter
UMSSW Room B780

PRESENTATION THEMES

- Gender variance, racial rhetoric and the politics of the Photo ID
- Genealogy of ID cards
- Political and Social context in the US
- Overview of local IDs
- The Racialization of ID cards
- Access exclusion

