

Enroll in an Intergroup Dialogue Course Today!!!

Social Justice through Education: IGR blends theory and experiential learning to facilitate awareness about social group identity, social inequality, and intergroup relations. The program prepares you to live and work in a diverse world, and educates you in making choices toward advancing equity, justice, and peace.

For more information about how to enroll in an IGR course, please visit www.igr.umich.edu

"This has been one of the most educational and valuable experiences of my life."

-Intergroup Dialogue Student

Intergroup Dialogue UC/PSYCH/SOC 122 (3 credits): Intergroup dialogues are three-credit courses (such as Race and Ethnicity, Gender, Socio-Economic Status, International and U.S., Religion, Sexual Orientation, Arab-Jewish, Ableism, White Racial Identity, Students of Color) carefully structured to explore social group identity, conflict, community, and social justice. Trained student facilitators and student participants explore similarities and differences among and across groups, and strive toward building a multicultural and democratic community. This course fulfills the LSA Race and Ethnicity Distribution requirement, and the Intergroup Relations Education Minor requirement.

PROGRAM ON
INTERGROUP RELATIONS
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

A partnership between LSA & Student Life