Terms & Travel Details for the Lucky Raffle Winner

Entering Moana Economy Class the first thing to notice is the color palette, one inspired by the natural beauty of Tahiti. Pillows that pop with the vivid hues and patterns of the island's flowers and vegetation, resting on variations of blue taken from lagoon, ocean and cloudless sky. Ergonomics were key in the selection of seats for Moana Economy Class. Their 264 seats are built with strong, lightweight materials to improve overall fuel efficiency without sacrificing support and comfort. Seats recline to a comfortable 118 degrees and a pitch of 32 inches, perfect when viewing your 9-inch high definition screen, loaded with a full assortment of recent release movies, TV shows, music, video games and much more. For your personal electronics, each seat also has a USB power port. For kids whose screen time is up, an amenity kit with games is available.

The two Moana Class tickets can be redeemed for travel on ATN-operated flights only. Travel must be booked by email or by phone at ATN's Marketing and Communication department in Tahiti no later than 31 August, 2016, and at least 3 weeks prior to departure. The actual travel must begin prior to 31 August 2016. Both tickets must be used on the same flight and same travel dates. Some flexibility in travel dates may be required due to capacity and space availability. The winner will be responsible for paying applicable taxes and service fees. Once issued, the tickets are non-refundable and any changes to routing or dates of travel will be subject to a change fee. The estimated retail value for both tickets is a total of $2,500. Travel miles on this program do not count toward Club Tiare.
