

Theater Weekend for Children (8-12) at the Alliance Française

December 12 and 13, 2015 - 10am-5pm

Before the holidays, leave your children with Pascaline for a weekend program of theater at the Alliance, while you do your last-minute holiday shopping. The weekend session for children (ages 8-12) runs for two days, daily from 10am to 5pm. All levels of French are welcome.

Pascaline worked for 12 years as Assistant Director and Director for the highly reputed Paris-based children's theater company, Tamèrantong! She toured with the group in France and abroad before moving to Portland three years ago.

The children will experience French through pronunciation exercises and tongue twisters, theater and improvisation games, and practicing scenes from plays. To conclude the weekend of activities, parents will be invited to a special demonstration at the end.

Space is limited. Cost is $200 for the two-session program; lunch and snacks are included.
