Immersion Programs Summer 2015: “French on the Willamette”

Now in its 8th year, the emphasis for the immersion program is on developing fluidity of expression. The program includes targeted exercises on problem areas for Anglophones, with emphasis on current idiomatic expression necessary for spontaneous production in real-life situations. The programs include extensive grammar review, pronouns and the subjunctive. Class sizes are typically 7-10 people. The advanced level also contains a literature component.

Returning students: please note that the course will contain all new material.

Pricing for the classes is inclusive of instruction, materials, breakfast, lunch and refreshments. To pay separately: optional group dinners and recommended texts.

Daily program (may vary slightly):

- 9am Group Breakfast and Convo with teachers
- 10-12:30 Morning Lessons
- 12:00-1:30 Group Lunch and Convo with Teachers
- 1:30-3:30 Afternoon Lessons and 3:30-4pm Break
- 4-5:15 Séance Pratique
