

Martial Arts Program comes to Holden Christian Academy!

When:

Term 4, April 12 through June 8

Grades 1-4 Tuesdays 3:15 – 4:15

Grades 5-8 Wednesdays 3:15 – 4:15

Register by March 24, 2016

Why: This program will help a child grow in the personal values of discipline, respect, focus, and commitment, from a Christian perspective. The goals of the program are to help students become more active, learn to find focus, and gain self-confidence and self-respect.

Who: Ryan Proctor, father of HCA students Erik (Grade 3) and David

(Grade 1), has more than twenty years' experience in the Martial Arts. He studied American Kenpo Karate since the age of eight at MJA Martial Arts with Sensei Michael Agbay. He also studied Wing Chun Kung Fu as well as other forms of Martial Arts. Ryan became a junior leader at a young age, and later, an instructor at MJA Martial Arts. At age eighteen he earned a Black Belt in American Kenpo Karate. Ryan teaches Marital Arts from a born-again Christian perspective. He has attended Calvary Worship Center for his whole life under Pastor Joe Ford.

How much?:

Class Fee: The cost of the program breaks down to $10 per class, with a 50% discount for siblings. Payments are due in total for the term on the first day of class. The total for Term 4 for one student will be $80.00, payable to Ryan Proctor. The cost for siblings for this term will be $40.00.

Uniforms: are required and may be purchased on your own or through Mr. Proctor for $30.

Belt Tests: Tests will be scheduled privately and will cost $40, which includes price of new belt.

Questions?:

Contact Judy Bleau in the school office at 508-829-4418 or jbleau@holdenchristianacademy.org

Registration Form

Holden Christian Academy Martial Arts

Student Name: _____ Grade: _____

Parent Name: _____ Date: _____

Parent Signature: _____

Return to HCA by March 24, 2016, attn. Judy Bleau