Fehr Graham Announces Acquisition of Thomas Graceffa and Associates of Rockford, Illinois

ROCKFORD, IL (October 22, 2015) - Engineering and Environmental firm Fehr Graham today announced the acquisition of landscape architecture and planning firm, Thomas Graceffa and Associates, Inc. (TGA), of Rockford, Illinois. The acquisition adds landscape architecture to the full line of engineering and environmental offerings Fehr Graham currently provides to the Midwest market. With the acquisition, Fehr Graham's Rockford branch has grown to 25 staff members.

Thomas Graceffa and Associates, Inc., was established in 1974 as a Landscape Architecture/Planning firm with the goal of providing quality, state-of-the-art services for a variety of Midwestern clients.

"We are very excited to add the talented staff from Graceffa enabling us to provide expanded services for our clients. The addition of Landscape Architecture allows us to offer an enhanced and more comprehensive solution to our clients," said Mick Gronewold, Principal and Board Chairman. "We are proud to welcome TGA's team and their clients to the Fehr Graham family."

"The ability to join forces with Fehr Graham, who has a great reputation, was very attractive to us. Our philosophies are well aligned with Fehr Graham's, making for a good match between our two firms and for ensuring continuity of service," said Tom Graceffa, TGA's Principal. "Fehr Graham's resources will benefit our public and private clients by providing expanded services."

The acquisition became official on October 1 and the TGA team has moved to the Fehr Graham Rockford office, which is located in the renovated Prairie Street Brewhouse at 200 Prairie Street, Suite 208. Fehr Graham has 10 offices located in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin.
