

Summer Reading Family Challenge

Read outside.	Access a magazine with Zinio.	Ask a librarian for a book recommendation.	Listen to a book on CD or Playaway.	Read aloud to someone.
Download a book or audiobook using Overdrive.	Read poetry.	Read a nonfiction book.	Attend a library event.	Follow the library on Pinterest, Twitter, or Facebook.
Get a book recommendation from NoveList.	Read a teen book.	Sign up for the Summer Reading Challenge.	Read a classic.	Read a mystery.
Read a picture book.	Sign up for the library's eNews.	Attend a library program.	Borrow a DVD based on a book.	Visit the Wouldshop.
Download a song, movie, or TV show with hoopla.	Reread your favorite book.	Learn a new word or language using the Mango database.	Put your library card on your smartphone with the Cardstar app.	Read a new book.

Adults can sign up as individuals or with their household. Kids can sign up with their household. Please limit one entry per household.

Each square on your card represents a different challenge. As challenges are completed, mark the squares. (For household teams, only one member needs to fulfill the challenge to consider it complete.)

Once you have filled a row, column, or diagonal, you have completed the Family Challenge! Bring your card to the Kids & Teens Ask Us Desk for a prize.
