

President's Comments

MICHAEL E. UPCHURCH, PRESIDENT
MOBILE BAR ASSOCIATION

May all of our cases end in victory, but if not in victory, at least end justly.
 May we never lose our temper or our composure, or at least regret it when we do.
 May all of our clients adore and appreciate us, or at least some of them, on occasion.
 May all of our opponents treat us with courtesy and kindness, or at least treat us how we treat them.
 May our families never be inconvenienced or disrupted by the demands of our jobs, or at least understand, somewhat, when they are.
 May every judge rule our way, or at least consider our arguments thoughtfully before ruling against us.
 May we make more money than we ever dreamed of, or at least enough to give our families reasonable comfort and security.
 May we never buckle from the stress and pressure of the job, but if we do, may it be only rarely, and temporary.
 May every lawyer in the Bar be our admirer, or at least one or two be our friends.
 May we love the law and love our job, or at least find satisfaction in it much of the time.
 May we help every fellow lawyer who needs it, or at least one who does.
 May we never make a mistake, or at least not a catastrophic one.
 May we recognize our limitations and seek out advice from those with more wisdom and experience, or at least know that we should.
 May we never be tempted to step over the ethical line, but if we are, may we at least withstand the temptation.
 May we contribute much to our community, or at least a little.

May we never take ourselves too seriously, or at least have one or two people around us who will call us on it when we do.
 May we be leaders and examples in pro bono representation, or at least participate.
 May we get all the respect we deserve, or at least give respect to others who have earned it.
 May we never lose our idealism, or at least never become cynical.
 May we never fear failure, or at least never let that fear prevent us from experiencing success.
 Finally, may we receive everything we want, or at least everything we need, and, most of all, may we know the difference.

BROWSING THE BAR WITH BARBARA

I am determined not to remind everyone how quickly 2013 has “flown” by or how overwhelmed your MBA staff is here at the end of 2013 - Bench & Bar Conference, CLE’s, Dues Notices, 2014 Committee Appointments, end-of-year Committee/Section meetings, Foundation grants and membership drive and so forth and so on. But, I do want to tell you just a few of this year’s accomplishments made by your MBA OFFICERS/EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE – a new Employee Handbook; Fiscal Policies and Procedures; two amendments to the MBA By-Laws; discontinued the local Lawyer Referral Service program (as of the first of 2014 all referrals will be directed to the ASB Lawyer Referral Service); a very successful Food Drive; recognition of Ferrell Anders’ contribution as Editor-in-Chief of the MBA Monthly Bulletin for over twenty years; Danny Sheridan made an official member of the MBA; dressing up the MBA Web Site (still in progress). What can I say, it has been a busy year

I cannot, however, let this year pass without saying how much we – Tammy, Wynette and I – enjoy our jobs. It is a pleasure to come to work (except when the potty is not working properly). You all make our jobs very interesting – there is not a day goes by when we do not have a friendly visit from one of you or someone calling to say thank you or bringing by cookies from Pollman’s or a clever email to start our day. Thank you all, lawyers, runners, secretaries, legal assistants and legal administrators for helping make ours a most enviable place to work.

We wish for all of you a most wonderful Holiday Season and healthy and happy New Year!

YOUNG LAWYERS

JOSHUA D. FRIEDMAN, PRESIDENT

I have thoroughly enjoyed the honor and privilege of serving this year as the President of the Mobile Young Lawyers Section of the Mobile Bar Association. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve on the Executive Committee of the Mobile Bar Association as well as on the Board of Directors for the Mobile Bar Foundation. We have exceptional leadership with both organizations, so if you see Michael Upchurch or Kathy Miller, be sure to thank them for the work they have done to make our Mobile Bar Association and Mobile Bar Foundation the best in the State. I would be remiss to fail to acknowledge Barbara Rhodes and Tammy Anderson for the hard work they put in behind the scenes to keep the bar running smoothly, and Ferrell Anders for his work in bringing you this bulletin – so thank you all.

The Young Lawyers had a phenomenal year in terms of fundraising and overall atmosphere at the monthly meetings, neither of which would have been possible without the generosity of our sponsors and the hard work of the officers and Executive Committee. In all, we were able to give a combined $13,000 in donations to the St. Mary's Home, the Mobile Bar Foundation, University of South Alabama Children's and Women's Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, and the South Alabama Volunteer Lawyers Program this year. We certainly could not have done this without your generous support and the Committee's hard work, so I thank you again.

I am pleased to announce the incoming officers for next year, who will begin serving in January. The incoming President is Kasee Heisterhagen, who works at Burr & Forman (ksparks@burr.com). Kasee has served as both Treasurer and Vice President in the past two years and I am confident that she will do a great job this next year as President. Our incoming Vice President is Jonathan Maples and he works at Carr Allison (jmaples@carrallison.com). Jonathan has done an outstanding job serving as Treasurer this year and should do well in his role as Vice President. Our incoming Treasurer has not been decided. Kasee and Jonathan have a big decision to make. Whoever they select will definitely have some big shoes to fill, but I am confident they will do well keeping this organization headed down the right path. If you are interested in sponsoring a meeting next year, it is never too early to reserve a month, just contact Kasee or Jonathan for details.

Thank you again for making this an outstanding year for the Young Lawyers, and I wish all of you a very happy holiday season.

SAVLP

SOUTH ALABAMA VOLUNTEER LAWYERS

PROJECT HOMELESS CONNECT will take place January 31, 2014 from 8:00am-2:00pm at the Mobile Civic Center. The one day event provides needed services to the homeless of Baldwin and Mobile Counties, including access to free legal assistance, medical services, dental and vision screenings, housing assistance, food stamps, state ID's, Social Security Cards, and more. One exciting aspect of the event will be the presence of a homeless court. Four Mobile County judges will preside over cases. If you are interested in advising and/or representing clients at the homeless court, please contact Ariana at SAVLP (433-6693 or ariana@savlp.org). Civil and criminal attorneys are needed.

Many types of volunteers will be needed to make PROJECT HOMELESS CONNECT a success, so please spread the word. General volunteers can find additional information and register to participate on the HandsOn South Alabama website (www.handsonal.com). For any other questions, please contact Sharon Algood of Housing First, Inc. at 251-445-8016 or via email at sharon@hfal.org.

Please make plans to attend the BENCH AND BAR AWARDS CEREMONY on December 6th at the Grand Hotel and the MBA December luncheon on Friday, December 13th at the Battlehouse Hotel's Moonlight Ballroom. SAVLP will present outstanding service awards at both events. We look forward to recognizing the members of the Bar for their support of SAVLP this year.
