

Books 2016 and LGBT Fiction 2016.

Family Corner

48 Teens turned in their summer reading packets, representing over 4,000 hours of reading. Participants received a pool pass and coupons for local restaurants.

Gotta Catch 'Em All display celebrates teen fiction - novels about "nerd love", "fangirls" manga and comic books. The display ties in with the Pokemon Go app - SCPL is a Pokemon gym.

Teen Reading Lists New lists include Christian Fiction (Adventure/Fantasy), Christian Fiction (Love and Life), Fantasy Reads 2016, Geektastic, Manga 2016, Comic Tough Topics When families face change, good or bad, sometimes it can feel as if you are alone, and it is easy to become overwhelmed. Staffer Marcia Sayre compiled a list of books in our collection she recommends for opening the door for children to talk about their concerns and ask questions. The range of topics include abuse, anxiety, bullying, divorce, moving, and new baby. Stop by the Children's Desk for our brochure - we're happy to help!

New Collections Check out the Tween Collection. Tween audiobooks are shelved with the Juvenile DVD's, audio CD's, play aways and music. Browse the Caldecott collection, sponsored in part by Georgetown Kiwanis Club. New ABC book collection and I SING Classic Nursery Rhymes with Music are available for check out.