

March Programs & the "How To Festival"

Story times for babies, toddlers and pre-schoolers resumed, along with Family Storytime on Monday evenings. Check our website for days and times.

Joel the Singing Librarian presents stories, music and humor March 11 at 11:00 a.m. Fun for all ages! Easter Stories in the Story Barn begins at 10:00 a.m. on March 18.

Computer classes are on going. Check our website www.scottpublib.org for a schedule of classes.

The Memory Keepers Writing group meets Tuesday March 22 from 2:30-4:00 p.m. New writers welcome. Everyone has a story, and taking the time to record and remember special people, events, routines or characters is a gift not only given to yourself but to those who are close to you as well.

Character is Fate writing workshop teaches fiction writers how to create memorable characters essential to the flow and momentum of a story. Two sessions are scheduled: March 22 & 29 from 6-8 p.m.

Fred Nez-Keams performs flute music for a peaceful afternoon of song March 20 2-4:00 p.m.

September "How To" Festival

Calling all gardeners, crafters, bakers, cooks and candle-stick makers, animal lovers, fix-it specialists, hunters, calligraphers, wood crafters, fishermen, hikers and bikers (motorized or other) artists, actors, debaters, orators and anyone else with a special skill to teach library visitors during our first ever "How To" Festival Day at the library during the month of September. (Date to be announced). Activities will be spread over a 3 hour time frame; desired presentation length is 15-20 minutes per session.

E mail your proposal to julia@scottpublib.org, or drop it off at the Circulation Desk. Include your name, address, phone, or e mail contact information, description of your activity and whether a stipend is desired. Photos and videos welcome. Questions? Call and ask for Julia or e mail: julia@scottpublib.org.