

There is a need to change this world
We need to give it light.
Raising safe kids and this world will be better.

There is a need to change this world
Educating our children better
Giving them safe environments and this world will be better.

Fathers and mothers united People from every nation
Let's remember our children learn by observing and imitating.

Marvella
and
Johan