Class Guidelines

HTW (Hindu Temple, The Woodlands, Texas) School is here to introduce various classes for students. It is useful to practice what has been learnt.

1. Parent/s of students (under 18 years) attending the HTW are encouraged to be present in the premises.
2. Children should be punctual to classes. The classes begin at prescribed schedule as provided by specific instructor(s) and is subject to change.
3. Please make sure that the children come to class equipped with paper, pens / pencils and folders.
4. Children should be old enough to sit through the full session of class.
5. If you know in advance about your child not being able to attend School on any class, please tell the teacher and ask about the class missed. It is the duty of the child and parent to inquire what lesson was taught in the class and catch up.
6. Please insist that your children take home all their belongings. HTW School is not responsible for lost items.
7. Please make use of e-mail or talk to teachers or committee to let us know your ideas and suggestions.
8. This is YOUR school. Please talk to your child about discipline, keeping it quiet, clean and beautiful. Be a role model for your child and teach them by example.
9. Course specific information and requirements will be provided by the respective teacher

The teachers and staff of HTW EYS classes are comprised of volunteers and we work hard to make a difference in the lives of our children. They are our future and we want them to grow up with our values. So all parents are requested to come forward and help us achieve this goal by following these guidelines. Thank you!
