DEEPER CHANGE FORUM PRESENTS:

LEADERSHIP FOR THE LONG RUN: PREPARING OURSELVES AND OUR COMMUNITIES FOR A LIFETIME OF LEADING GUEST SPEAKER: AKAYA WINDWOOD

8:30 - 12:00 MORNING PRESENTATION
12:30 - 3:00 LUNCH & AFTERNOON WORKSHOP

Attending to one's health and well-being is not self-indulgent or elitist, it is essential to good leadership. This session will include reflections on individual leadership. Participants will get to know one another better through a discussion about how ensuring personal wellness can create greater growth in leadership and ultimately benefit our communities.

Windwood leads trainings nationally and internationally, and has been a featured speaker at the Stanford Social Innovation Review, the Independent Sector Conference and, Grantmakers for Effective Organizations. She is the recipient of an Ella Award from the Ella Baker Center for Human Rights and a Transformative Leadership Award from the Seasons Fund for Social Transformation.

AKAYA WINDWOOD is the President of Rockwood Leadership Institute, the nation's largest provider of transformative leadership trainings for nonprofit and philanthropic organizations.

Windwood currently serves on the advisory board of Destiny Arts Center and the advisory board for the National Progressive Leadership Campus. Windwood's vision for our global community includes infusing a sense of purpose, delight, and wonder into everything we do.

Co-Creating Effective & Inclusive Organizations [CEIO] - Our core intention is to support community organizers and community-serving organizations to fully embody inclusivity, justice and conscious co-creation, thereby inspiring, encouraging and expanding the wider practice of these values within the communities they serve.
