

'Dinner with Dickens: A New Musical Tale' Returns to Clay Hill Farm for the Holidays

December marks the return of, Clay Hill Farm Presents..."A Christmas Carol: The New Musical Tale." This One Man musical extravaganza comes to life with original heart-warming music and lyrics by Nancy Day and a theatrical adaptation by Kirk Simpson.

Simpson, the star of Clay Hill Farm Presents..., has brought many beloved historical and fictional characters to life since the dinner-theatre series debuted 4 years ago. This Holiday Season, Simpson will, once again, bring to life Charles Dickens and Ebenezer Scrooge- for a festive evening of musical theatre at Clay Hill Farm.

Composer, singer and lyricist, Nancy Day from Newburyport, MA, lent her many talents to Clay Hill Farm Presents... 'Dinner with Dickens: A New Musical Tale', composing original music & lyrics for the family favorite, "A Christmas Carol". With an incredible talent for storytelling, poetry and music, Day has worked closely with Simpson to create a very special personal and intimate telling of this classic tale. Her imaginative musical score has audiences dancing in the aisles for the Holiday season, and will provide the musical backdrop for Simpson, as he weaves the tale of merry Olde England with Ebenezer Scrooge and all the lovable Dickens characters in this family Holiday Classic.
