

Community Living Campaign: On The Road Presentations – March 31, 2015

NEW

You Tube Intensive

On You Tube a whole world of exciting sounds and moving pictures opens up. Learn how to get the most out of this site: listening, searching, saving, and more – including a handout to get you up to speed.

The “Clouds”

Want to get your head in the clouds? Learn how to effectively use “cloud” sites like DropBox, Google, and more to be organized, communicate, and safely share what you are doing.

Intensive Gaming

A fun session about gaming online: locate best sites for your favorite games, and find new ones that you may like. Demos, searches and hand-outs included

E-mail: the “ins and outs”

The most reliable sites and how to use and get the most out of them

MOST REQUESTED

Point Shoot Share: take a photo, put it online, print it and take it with you

Genealogy: find out about your personal ancestry

Free Movies and Music Online: best sites

MOST INTERESTING

SF Politics:

Linda Post creates the widely read blog sanfranciscofyi, blogspot.com, which is a calendar of political events in San Francisco. She believes that people in San Francisco should be acknowledged for their hard work and we should pay attention to what is going on

Collecting Interactive: bring your “valuables” and we’ll research them with you

The Search: There is nothing you can’t find on the internet, Find the best sites with the best information

MOST GRATIFYING

Shopping online:

Compare prices on sites like Amazon with stores you use – and don’t forget to take into consideration the time it takes to go to the stores and the cost of transportation (public and/or gasoline) – and that free delivery is often available
