

PEOPLE POWER

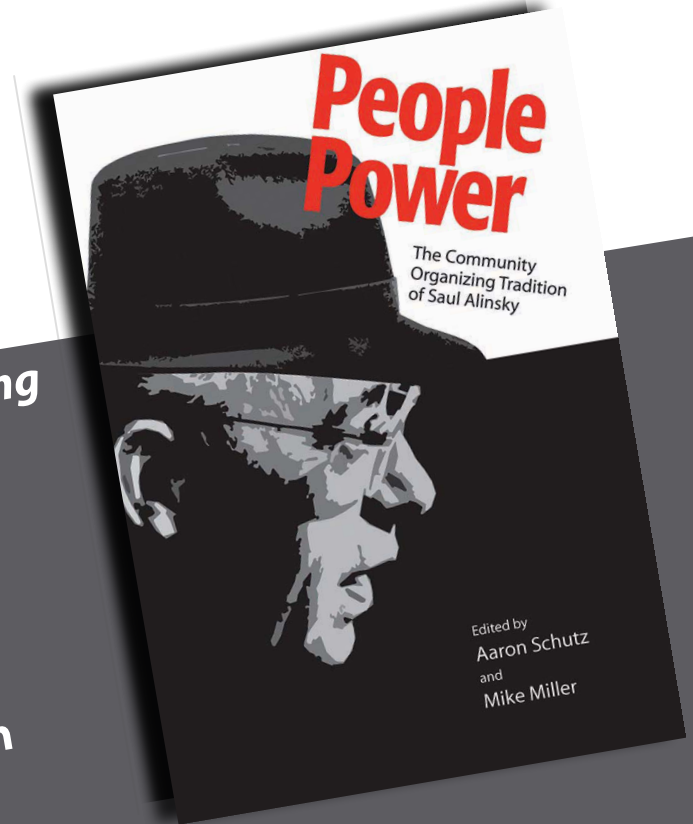

A CONVERSATION WITH MIKE MILLER ABOUT THE SAUL ALINSKY ORGANIZING TRADITION

Thursday, March 3
7:00 to 9:00 p.m.

Laborers' International Union Hall
3271 18th Street
(between So. Van Ness & Shotwell)
San Francisco

People Power: The Community Organizing Tradition of Saul Alinsky weaves classic texts, interviews and context-setting essays by the editors into a comprehensive history and analytic commentary on Saul Alinsky and the group of organizers around him from 1955 to 1980.

Mike Miller was lead organizer for Mission Coalition Organization, All People's Coalition (Visitation Valley), Citizens Action League (CA), and involved in anti-urban renewal fights in South of Market, Western Addition and Bayview-Hunters Point.

This event is free and open to the public.

In 1970, Time Magazine called Alinsky a "prophet of power to the people," someone who "has possibly antagonized more people... than any other living American."

Bob Moses, Mississippi field secretary for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, calls the book "indispensible..." and "an important part of the discussion we must have in this country if we are to have any real democracy."

Sanford Horwitt, Alinsky biographer, tells us "the editors reveal why the Alinsky organizing tradition remains relevant in our contemporary world."
